REQUEST FOR ORDER: SPOUSAL OR PARTNER SUPPORT, ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS, BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) The parties are, Petitioner Danielle Taylor, and Respondent Cheick Diarra. Per the Petition for Dissolution of Marriage filed 3/29/24 and the Response and Request for Dissolution of Marriage filed 5/22/24, the parties married on 7/11/11 and separated on 2/1/24, for a marriage of 12 years and 6 months. They have no minor children in common.
- 2) On for hearing is Petitioner's Request for Order filed 7/29/26. Petitioner requests:
 - a. An order awarding Petitioner 100% of the value of the concealed entities (Afro Glow LLC, Tayi Group LLC), alongside 100% of the balances within Respondent's unlisted Robinhood accounts, pursuant to Family Code Section 1101(h).
 - b. An order finding Respondent siphoned an admitted minimum of $47,214.13 via Wise
Inc. without Petitioner's consent, awarding an immediate dollar-for-dollar offset from his Fidelity 401(k) and E*TRADE accounts, with the final restitution amount subject to proof upon receipt of the Wise Inc. subpoena records.

c. An order restraining Respondent from interfering with third-party subpoenas issued to Bank of America, Robinhood Financial LLC, and Wise Inc.

d. An order awarding Petitioner $15,000 under Family Code sections 1101(g) and 271.

3) On 8/17/26, Respondent filed a Responsive Declaration asking that Petitioner's Request for Order be denied in its entirety. Respondent notes that Petitioner's Request for Order did not contain a supporting declaration and that Petitioner's Request for Order was signed by Petitioner's attorney rather than Petitioner. Respondent also argues that Petitioner's attorney's involvement with the 7/29/26 Request for Order exceeds the scope of the Notice of Limited Scope Representation filed 2/26/26, wherein Petitioner's attorney states that he will represent Petitioner with respect to "resolution of discovery and information exchange." Respondent states he has already refuted the "theory" underlying Petitioner's requests. Respondent also states that the Court has already identified Petitioner's breach of fiduciary duty claims and attorney's fees requests as issues to be heard at the upcoming November 2026 trial.

B. Tentative Ruling

1) Petitioner's Request for Order filed 7/29/26 is DENIED without prejudice. Petitioner may raise these issues at the trial currently set before Judge Chan in November 2026.

2) Regarding Petitioner's request for an order restraining Respondent from interfering with third-party subpoenas issued to Bank of America, Robinhood Financial LLC, and Wise Inc., the Court notes that at the hearing on 9/4/26, Judge Gold quashed service of those subpoenas. Therefore, that request is moot.

3) Petitioner's attorney shall prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.

4) Preparation of Order: If you are directed by the court to prepare the order after hearing – within 10 calendar days of the hearing you must either: (a) Serve the proposed order to the other party/counsel for approval, and follow the procedures set forth in CA Rules of Court, Rule 5.125(c), or (b) If the other party did not appear or the matter was uncontested, submit the proposed order after hearing directly to the court. Failure to submit the order after hearing within 10 days may allow the other party to prepare a proposed order and submit it to the court in accordance with CA Rules of Court, Rule 5.125(d).
