ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE AND AFFIDAVIT FOR CONTEMPT

TENTATIVE RULING

The parties are ordered to appear. The parties may appear in person in Dept. 403 or remotely by Zoom video. If a party chooses to appear by video, that party must abide by the Notice and Instructions for Remote Appearances in San Francisco Family Court set forth above.

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

1) The parties are Petitioner Stefan E. Adler (Father) and Respondent Jennifer Rosedail (Mother).

Per the Petition for Dissolution of Marriage filed 6/03/25 and the Response and Request for Dissolution of Marriage filed 7/22/25, the parties married on 8/05/95 and separated on 9/26/24, for a marriage of 29 years and 1 month. They share two minor children (twins): Hugo Adler (DOB: 7/4/13) and Mose Adler (DOB: 7/4/13).

2) On 6/26/26, the Court filed a Findings and Order After Hearing, which states as follows:

“Petitioner is ordered to look for work, and to spend a minimum of 20 hours per week in job search related activities. Petitioner is ordered to look for work, and to apply for a minimum of 15 jobs per week. Petitioner must serve a copy of the logs once per month and within the first 10 days of each month, starting May 8, 2026, to opposing counsel or party.”

- 1 3) On for hearing is Mother's Order to Show Cause and Affidavit for Contempt filed 8/4/26. Mother
2 asserts Father has failed to provide Mother with copies of Father's work logs as ordered on
3 6/11/26. Mother's counsel asserts in an attached Declaration that four days after work logs were 4 due, she emailed Father's counsel on 7/14/26 requesting the work logs. The email went 5 unanswered. Mother's counsel emailed Father's counsel again on 7/14/26 and 7/21/26. These
6 emails went unanswered. Mother's counsel additionally asserts on 7/24/26, the parties met for a
7 Mandatory Settlement Conference with mediator, Jessica Metoyer. Ms. Metoyer conveyed to 8 Mother's counsel that Father "had committed to produce his overdue work search logs by July 27, 9 2026." On July 28, 2026, Mother's counsel emailed Father's counsel requesting the work logs.
10 Father's counsel did not respond. Mother's counsel has attached exhibits of Mother's counsel's 11 emails.
- 12 4) Per the Proof of Service filed 8/24/26, Mother's Order to Show Cause and Affidavit for Contempt 13 was emailed to Father's attorney. The Proof of Service indicates: "Petitioner's counsel agreed to 14 accept electronic service."
- 15 5) On 9/09/26, Father filed a Request to Discharge Order to Show Cause for Contempt. Father states
16 Mother failed to meet her burden of proof necessary to establish contempt of family law orders.
17 Father states Mother must prove the following to establish Contempt, "(1) rendition of a valid
18 order, (2) the citee's knowledge of the order, (3) the citee's willful disobedience of the order."
19 Specifically, Father provides Mother failed to establish knowledge. Father asserts neither he nor 20 his counsel were present for the hearing on 6/11/2026 nor were they served with a Findings and 21 Order After Hearing. Father states his job log was submitted to Mother's attorney on 7/30/26 (the 22 same day she filed the contempt) and timely submitted another job log on 8/10/26. Father also 23 states he obtained and began employment effective 8/24/26.
