Vance Yarbrough’s Motion for Leave to Conduct Specified Discovery
Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure 425.16 (G) – GRANTED, in part.

County: stanislaus

Division: Civil Law and Motion

Department: 23

Hearing date: 2027-04-30

Motion: The Court finds that Plaintiff has demonstrated good cause to conduct limited discovery relative to specific facts necessary to meet his burden with regard to Defendant's motion to strike. (Code Civ. Proc. § 425.16(g).) Therefore, the Court authorizes the following discovery: Plaintiff may obtain portions of the TUSD investigation file, limited to those materials bearing on communications with and/or notice to the defendant regarding the investigation and findings, the documents provided to her, and the timing thereof. All student-identifying references and information shall be redacted from the subject production. Plaintiff may obtain portions of the TPD incident report and supplements for Case No. TP25005560, limited to those materials bearing on communications with and/or notice to the defendant regarding the investigation and findings, the documents provided to her, and the timing thereof. All student-identifying references and information shall be redacted from the subject production.
