County: stanislaus

Division: Family Law

Department: 14

Hearing date: 2026-09-22

Motion: Attorney for Respondent's Motion to Be Relieved—HEARING REQUIRED. Proof of service by mail on the client and Petitioner is on file. Counsel's declaration purports to have confirmed that client's address is current by telephone. That said, there is no declaration on file from counsel regarding the client's receipt or other verification of the currency of the mailing address and Respondent has not filed any response. "Merely demonstrating that the notice was sent to the client's last known address and was not returned or no electronic delivery failure message was received is not, by itself, sufficient to demonstrate that the address is current. If the service is by mail, Code of Civil Procedure section 1011(b) applies." (Cal. Rules of Ct., rule 3.1362(d), emphasis added.) Otherwise, the grounds for involuntary withdrawal are appropriately stated in sufficiently general terms to avoid disclosure of confidential or privileged information and there are no impending hearings on the merits that appear to the Court likely to cause prejudice should counsel be relieved. Accordingly, if the Court's concerns regarding the adequacy of notice and service are satisfied, the Court is inclined to grant the motion with the effective date of the order relieving counsel to be delayed until proof of service of the signed order on the client is filed with the Court.
