

		The Defendants signed a lease for the premises address. There is no documentation on the lease or in the Motion to Quash Service that Defendants have another address for service. Defendant's Motion to Quash Service lists their address as 7328 Spectrum, Irvine, CA 92618, which is the premises address. A registered process server who made multiple attempts at personal service may proceed with substituted service under Code of Civil Procedure § 415.20. Here, the registered process server obtained the name of the person who answered the door at the residence, and Ms. Zhu accepted the documents – there is no indication that Ms. Zhu refused service or indicated that she was not an occupant of the household. Case law such as Zirbes v. Stratton (1986) 187 Cal. App. 3d 1407, 1416-1417 allows for substituted service, which is reasonably calculated to give notice – the circumstances here are reasonable that it would give notice to the Defendants. The Court DENIES the Motion to Quash Service of Summons. Defendants are ordered to file a responsive pleading within 5 calendar days. Plaintiff is ordered to serve notice of the Court's ruling via email and mail.
10	30-2026-01567675 Catherine S. Burnett As Trustee Of The Estela Gomez Trust vs. Romo	The Court has read and considered the Defendant's Motion to Quash Service of Summons (ROA 11). The Court takes Judicial Notice of Proof of Service (ROA 8). California Evidence Code Section 647 establishes a rebuttable presumption that a proof of service signed by a registered process server is true. It shifts the burden of proving lack of service to the defendant, rather than requiring the plaintiff to prove proper service. Here, registered process server David Cunningham #1895 declared under penalty of perjury that he personally served the defendant on May 9, 2026, at 7:40 AM. Defendant has provided no evidence to rebut the presumption under Evidence Code section 647 other than her own self-serving statements that she was not personally served. The Court DENIES the Motion to Quash Service of Summons. The Court orders the Defendant to file a responsive pleading within 5 business days. The Plaintiff is ordered to serve notice of the Court's ruling.
11	30-2026-01567279 2525 Main Apartment, LP vs. Xie	The Court has read and considered the Defendant's Demurrer to the Complaint (ROA 11) and the Complaint (ROA 2). The Demurrer to the Complaint is SUSTAINED. The attached Three-Day Notice To Permanently Perform Covenant or Quit attached to the Complaint fails to state the premises address, "within three days...you are required to do one of the following," but only lists one option without listing the quit section of the notice. It appears to the Court as if the notice is missing a page or more. If Plaintiff can provide documentation to the Court that all of the required information was provided to the Defendants at the time of service of the Notice to Permanently Perform Covenant or Quit, the Court will allow the Plaintiff leave to amend to attach the documents properly with the Complaint. If the Plaintiff served the Notice to Permanently Perform Covenant or Quit as shown in the Complaint, the Demurrer will be sustained without leave to amend, as the law does not permit the Plaintiff to amend a defective notice to pay or quit.
