

name of the Trust. A pour-over will indicates an intent that any property not held in Trust at time of death be devised to the Trust after death. A pour-over will does not support a present intent to hold the subject property in the name of the Trust during the decedent's lifetime. No other evidence was provided to show the decedent had a present intent to hold the subject property in Trust while he was living. The Petition is DENIED without prejudice. The clerk is instructed to close the file. No appearance is necessary on today's calendar.
