OMAR LOPEZ, AN

INDIVIDUAL vs CITY OF PICO RIVERA, Case No. 24NWCV00054

Plaintiff OMAR LOPEZ alleges that he suffered personal injuries when he fell through an unsecured steel crate covering water meters which was owned and maintained by Defendants CITY OF PICO RIVERA and FULFILLMENT WORLD, INC.

Trial is currently set for January 29, 2027. Counsel for FULFILLMENT WORLD, INC. filed a Motion to be Relieved as Counsel which is set for October 9, 2027. Defendant CITY OF PICO RIVERA applies ex parte to continue trial approximately six months, to July 29, 2027, on the grounds that it has not received substantive discovery responses from Defendant FULFILLMENT WORLD, INC. because counsel for FULFILLMENT WORLD, INC. has not had access to the client. (Smith Decl., ¶5.) Defendant CITY OF PICO RIVERA has granted Defendant FULFILLMENT WORLD, INC. an extension until October 25, 2026 to serve supplemental discovery responses. (Id., ¶7.) The ex parte application is DENIED without prejudice.

The Court is not opposed to continuing trial, but at this juncture, the length of time needed for any such continuance is uncertain. The Court will confer with the parties on October 9, 2026 regarding substitution of new counsel and a timeline for completing discovery and trial preparation.

Moving party to give notice.
