REQUEST FOR ORDER RE: ORDER PETITIONER TO SIGN QDRO

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) The parties are Petitioner Larry A. Allen and Respondent Ann L. Allen.
- 2) On 10/25/06, Judgment of Dissolution was entered, which provides for division of Petitioner's pension plan as follows: (a) 50% of Petitioner's pension plan from his employer and WCT pension plan from 3/28/92 to 3/5/03 confirmed to Respondent as her separate property; and (b) Petitioner's pension plans from his employment and union – with the exception of the 50% to Respondent during the time of marriage – confirmed as Petitioner's separate property.
- 3) On 3/10/25, Respondent filed a Request for Joinder of Employee Benefit Plan and Order and related pleadings; therefore, joinder of Petitioner's pension plan was effectuated.
- 4) On 3/17/26, Respondent filed a Request for Order seeking an order for Petitioner to sign a proposed Qualified Domestic Relations Order (QDRO). Respondent asserts that Petitioner's pension has not been divided in accordance with the Judgment. Respondent attached as Exhibit B a proposed QDRO, which Respondent asserts Petitioner refuses to sign.

1 5) On 3/25/26, Respondent filed a Proof of Service indicating Petitioner was served by mail on 2 3/25/26.

3 6) Petitioner did not file a Responsive Declaration.

4 B. Findings and Order

5 1) Respondent's unopposed request for an order for Petitioner to sign the proposed QDRO attached
6 as Exhibit B to Respondent's 3/25/26 Request for Order is GRANTED.

7 2) Petitioner shall sign the QDRO no later than 5/28/26 at 5 PM.

8 3) In the event Petitioner fails to sign the QDRO by 5/28/26 at 5 PM, the Court finds good cause to 9 appoint an elisor to sign the QDRO on Petitioner's behalf.

10 4) Specifically, Court Executive Officer Brandon Riley is appointed as elisor.

11 5) Should Respondent need to obtain the signature of Mr. Riley, Respondent shall contact the 12 Administrative Office in Room 205 at 415-551-5737 to schedule an appointment with Mr. Riley
13 to sign the QDRO. Respondent shall bring to the appointment the necessary documents requiring 14 signature and a file-endorsed copy of this order.

15 6) Counsel for Respondent shall prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.

16 7) Preparation of Order: If you are directed by the court to prepare the order after hearing – within
17 10 calendar days of the hearing you must either: (a) Serve the proposed order to the other
18 party/counsel for approval, and follow the procedures set forth in CA Rules of Court, Rule
19 5.125(c), or (b) If the other party did not appear or the matter was uncontested, submit the
20 proposed order after hearing directly to the court. Failure to submit the order after hearing within
21 10 days may allow the other party to prepare a proposed order and submit it to the court in
22 accordance with CA Rules of Court, Rule 5.125(d).

REQUEST FOR ORDER RE: ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS, ORDERS RE NONCOMPLIANCE
WITH DISCLOSURES; SANCTIONS; BIFURCATE AND TERMINATE MARITAL STATUS

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the
Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) The parties are Petitioner Razvan Roman and Respondent Lliana Niculescu.
- 2) On 3/28/22, Petitioner filed a Petition for Dissolution indicating the date of marriage is 4/10/17 and date of separation is 1/21/22 for a marriage of 4 years and 9 months.
- 3) On 11/21/25, Respondent filed a Response and Request for Dissolution indicating the date of marriage is 4/10/27 and date of separation is "TBD." The Court notes default was entered against Respondent on 6/5/24 and then set aside at hearing on 11/18/25.
- 4) On 3/13/26, Respondent filed a Request for Order, supportive attorney declaration, and Memorandum of Points and Authorities seeking: (a) $75,000 in Family Code section 2030 attorney's fees and costs; (b) orders regarding noncompliance with disclosure requirements; (c) $15,290 in Family Code section 271 sanctions; and (d) bifurcation of trial and termination of marital status. Respondent asserts that Petitioner has delayed settlement and caused her to incur unnecessary legal fees. It is Respondent's position that there is a clear disparity in access to funds

1 as Petitioner has assets valued over millions of dollars including several properties (one is San
2 Francisco, one in Tahoe, and one in Truckee) and multiple luxury cars. Attached as Exhibit A is a
3 proposed Status Only Judgment.

4 5) On 3/13/26, Respondent filed an Income and Expense Declaration.

5 6) On 4/17/26, Respondent filed a Declaration Regarding Service of Declaration of Disclosure
6 stating that Respondent's Preliminary Declaration of Disclosure was served on the other party by 7 email on 8/11/25.

8 7) On 4/20/26, Petitioner filed a Declaration Regarding Service of Declaration of Disclosure stating
9 that Respondent's Preliminary Declaration of Disclosure was served on the other party's attorney
10 by email on 4/15/26.

11 8) On 5/8/26, Petitioner filed a Responsive Declaration in opposition to Respondent's Request for 12 Order. Petitioner disputes that there is a disparity in access to funds, asserts his assets are not
13 liquid, and claims he provided approximately $72,000 in voluntary funds to Petitioner since
14 separation (plus use of a car Petitioner values at $36,000). Petitioner requests that the Court order
15 Respondent to "sell 3 community property watches in her possession with value of at least 16 $40,000 to pay her attorney's fees based on Petitioner's previously proposed Stipulation."
17 Petitioner asserts the requests regarding disclosure requirements and related sanctions are moot.
18 Petitioner does not oppose bifurcation of trial and termination of marital status so long as the 19 Court reserves jurisdiction over all issues, including protective conditions under Family Code
20 section 2337(c). Petitioner states that he did not intentionally delay the dissolution process but 21 suffered a serious health problem beginning December 2025 and was unable to communicate
22 with his attorney.

23 9) On 5/8/26, counsel for Petitioner filed a declaration in support of Petitioner's position.

24 10) On 5/8/26, Petitioner filed an Income and Expense Declaration.

25 11) On 5/8/26, Petitioner filed a Memorandum of Points and Authorities.

26 12) On 5/14/26, Respondent filed a Reply Declaration asserting that Petitioner's Preliminary 27 Declaration of Disclosure was filed nearly four years after the deadline, claiming that the 28 voluntary funds Petitioner provided were reimbursements, and asserting that the watches were 29 gifts during marriage.

13) On 5/14/26, counsel for Respondent filed a declaration in support of Respondent's position.

14) On 5/14/26, Respondent filed a Memorandum of Points and Authorities.

15) On 5/18/26, Petitioner filed a Supplemental Declaration.

16) On 5/19/26, Respondent filed Respondent's Objections to Petitioner's Supplemental Declaration of Mary F. Mock.

B. Findings and Order

1) As a preliminary issue, Respondent's Objections to Petitioner's Supplemental Declaration of Mary F. Mock are SUSTAINED and motion to strike is GRANTED. The rules do not provide for the filing of a such pleading.

2) Respondent's request for Family Code section 2030 attorney's fees is GRANTED; albeit in the amount of $45,000. The Court finds an award of attorney's fees and costs is appropriate here because there is a demonstrated disparity between the parties in access to funds to retain or maintain counsel and in the ability to pay for legal representation based on the significant value of Petitioner's assets. The Court further finds that Petitioner is reasonably likely to have the ability to pay for legal representation for both parties and $45,000 in attorney's fees is reasonable and necessary.

3) In so far as either party seeks additional financial information, they may conduct formal discovery as both parties have now filed and served their Preliminary Declarations of Disclosure.

4) Respondent's request for Family Code section 271 sanctions is DENIED. Both parties extensively briefed their respective commitments to settlement. The Court encourages both parties to focus forward and attempt to reach a global settlement.

5) Public policy favors bifurcation and termination of marital status, and the Court finds that Respondent's request for bifurcation of trial and termination of marital status is unopposed.

6) However, Respondent did not submit form FL-315 (Request for Separate Trial) with the Request for Order, which is a mandatory form.

7) As such, Respondent's request for bifurcation and termination of marital status is continued to 7/14/26 at 9 AM in Dept. 403. The parties shall meet and confer in advance of this hearing to attempt to resolve the issue. If meet and confer efforts are unsuccessful, Respondent shall file and

1 serve form FL-315 (Request for Separate Trial) at least 10 calendar days in advance of the next
2 hearing.

3 8) Counsel for Respondent shall prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.

4 9) Preparation of Order: If you are directed by the court to prepare the order after hearing – within
5 10 calendar days of the hearing you must either: (a) Serve the proposed order to the other
6 party/counsel for approval, and follow the procedures set forth in CA Rules of Court, Rule
7 5.125(c), or (b) If the other party did not appear or the matter was uncontested, submit the
8 proposed order after hearing directly to the court. Failure to submit the order after hearing within
9 10 days may allow the other party to prepare a proposed order and submit it to the court in
10 accordance with CA Rules of Court, Rule 5.125(d).

REQUEST FOR ORDER RE: BIFURCATION AND SEPARATE TRIAL (STATUS-ONLY OF DOMESTSIC PARTNERSHIP)

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the
Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) The parties are Petitioner Roseanne Bulaong and Respondent Steven Bastuba.
- 2) On 3/20/26, Respondent filed a Request for Order seeking bifurcation and termination of domestic partnership status. Respondent attached form FL-315 (Request for Separate Trial). Respondent states he pays $200 dollars for Petitioner's health insurance and requests the Court exercise its discretion to impose conditions under Family Code section 2337(c) related to Petitioner's health insurance.
- 3) On 4/28/26, Petitioner filed a Responsive Declaration agreeing to bifurcation and termination of domestic partnership status so long as Respondent continues to be financially responsible for Petitioner's health insurance.

B. Findings and Order

- 1) Public policy favors bifurcation and termination of domestic partnership status.

1 2) The Court finds that Respondent's request for bifurcation of the parties' domestic partnership
2 status is unopposed.

3 3) Based on the pleadings filed with the Court and signed under penalty of perjury, the Court further 4 finds that:

5 a. Petitioner filed a Petition for Dissolution of Domestic Partnership on 12/20/24.

6 b. Under Family Code section 2339(a), the Court first acquired jurisdiction over Respondent
7 when Respondent was served with the Petition and Summons on 1/3/25. See Proof of 8 Service of Summons filed 1/15/25.

9 c. Respondent filed a Response and Request for Dissolution of Domestic Partnership on 10 5/2/25.

11 d. Within the Petition and Response, both parties indicate that Respondent was a resident of 12 California for at least six months and of San Francisco County for at least three months
13 immediately preceding the filing of the Petition.

14 e. Within the Petition and Response, both parties request a divorce based on irreconcilable
15 differences.

16 f. On 10/13/25, Respondent filed a Declaration Regarding Service of Declaration of 17 Disclosure stating that Respondent's Preliminary Declaration of Disclosure was served 18 on the other party by mail on 8/30/25.

19 g. On 2/2/26, Petitioner filed a Declaration Regarding Service of Declaration of Disclosure
20 stating that Petitioner's Preliminary Declaration of Disclosure was served on the other
21 party by mail on 10/23/25.

22 h. In the Request for Separate Trial (attached to Respondent's 3/20/26 Request for Order), 23 Respondent responded to the prompt "All pension or retirement plans in which the 24 community has an interest are listed below" by listing the following:

25 i. 401(k) in Respondent's name administered by Alaska Airlines Fidelity

26 ii. Pension plan in Petitioner's name administered by the Western Conference of 27 Teamsters Pension Trust

28 4. Based on the foregoing, the Court finds good cause to CONTINUE Respondent's unopposed
29 request to bifurcate and terminate the parties' domestic partnership status as the pension plan in

Petitioner's name administered by the Western Conference of Teamsters Pension Trust must be joined in this action under Family Code section 2337(d) before the Court can bifurcate and terminate the parties' domestic partnership status. The Court notes the 401(k) in Respondent's name administered by Alaska Airlines Fidelity does not require joinder.

5. Accordingly, Respondent's unopposed request to bifurcate and terminate the parties' domestic partnership status is CONTINUED to 7/14/26 at 9 AM in Dept. 403 to permit Respondent time to effectuate joinder of the pension plan (i.e., submit forms FL-370, FL-372, and FL-375 to effectuate joinder).
6. The Court will prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.

REQUEST FOR ORDER: RESPONDENT TO FILE THEIR PRELIMINARY DECLARATION OF DISCLOSURES

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the
Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) The parties are Petitioner Jefree Antonio Torres Pocasangre and Respondent Bianca Luz Perez.
- 2) On 3/6/25, Petitioner filed a Petition for Dissolution indicating that the date of marriage is 2/7/21 and date of separation is 10/31/23 for a marriage of 2 years and 8 months. On 5/9/25, Respondent filed a Response and Request for Dissolution indicating agreement with the date of marriage and date of separation.
- 3) On 9/16/25, Petitioner filed form FL-141 (Declaration Regarding Service of Declaration of Disclosure) stating that his Preliminary Declaration of Disclosure was served on the other party by mail on 9/15/25.
- 4) On 3/12/26, Petitioner filed a Request for Order seeking Family Code section 2107 relief. Petitioner requests that the Court order Respondent to serve her Preliminary Declaration of Disclosure or waive receipt of Respondent's Preliminary Declaration of Disclosure under Family

Code section 2107(b)(3) in the alternative. Petitioner additionally requests $8,000 in sanctions for Respondent's failure to provide her Preliminary Declaration of Disclosure.

- 5) On 3/12/26, Petitioner's attorney filed a declaration substantiating his request for $8,000 in sanctions.
- 6) On 3/12/26, Petitioner filed a Memorandum of Points and Authorities.
- 7) On 3/26/26, Petitioner filed a declaration which appears to be the same declaration filed on 3/12/26 in support of his Request for Order.
- 8) On 3/26/26, Petitioner filed a Proof of Service by Mail indicating the Request for Order and supportive pleadings were served on Respondent on 3/24/26.
- 9) On 4/10/26, Respondent filed a Proof of Electronic Service of a Notice of Change of Address or Other Contact Information.
- 10) Respondent did not file a Responsive Declaration to the Request for Order.

B. Findings and Order

- 1) Family Code section 2104 mandates service – by both parties – of the preliminary declaration of disclosure.
- 2) Petitioner's request for the Court to compel Respondent to comply with Family Code section 2104 is therefore GRANTED.
- 3) By 5/31/26, Respondent shall complete her preliminary declaration of disclosure by:
 - a. Serving on Petitioner all of the following: Preliminary Declaration of Disclosure (form FL-140), current Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-150), completed Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142) or Community and Separate Property Declarations (form FL-160) with appropriate attachments, all tax returns filed by the party in the two years before service of the preliminary disclosures, and all other required information under Family Code section 2104.
 - b. Filing Declaration Regarding Service of Declaration of Disclosure and Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-141) with the Court.
- 4) Family Code section 2107 provides the Court's authority to (a) grant a complying party's voluntary waiver of receipt of the noncomplying party's preliminary declaration of disclosure pursuant to Section 2104; and (b) impose money sanctions against the noncomplying party in an

1 amount sufficient to deter repetition of the conduct or comparable conduct, including reasonable
2 attorney's fees, costs incurred, or both, unless the court finds that the noncomplying party acted
3 with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction
4 unjust.

5 5) Based on the foregoing, if Respondent fails to meet the 5/31/26 disclosure deadline set forth
6 above, the Court finds good cause to GRANT Petitioner's request for waiver of Respondent's
7 Preliminary Declaration of Disclosure given Respondent's nonparticipation in the case.

8 6) Petitioner's request for $8,000 in sanctions is GRANTED; albeit, in the amount of $4,000. The 9 Court finds that Respondent failed to comply with the mandatory disclosure requirements and 10 caused unnecessary delay due to nonparticipation in the case.

11 7) The Court will prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.
