DISCUSSION

Dolan Law Firm, P.C. ("Plaintiffs' Counsel") moves to be relieved as counsel for plaintiffs Marlen Solano and Ulises Rangel ("Plaintiffs") in this action.

"The question of granting or denying an application of an attorney to withdraw as counsel (Code Civ. Proc., § 284, subd. 2) is one which lies within the sound discretion of the trial court, having in mind whether such withdrawal might work an injustice in the handling of the case.'" (People v. Prince, (1968) 268 Cal.App.2d 398, 406 [internal quotations omitted].)

The court should also consider whether the attorney's "withdrawal can be accomplished without undue prejudice to the client's interests." (Ramirez v. Sturdevant (1994) 21 Cal.App.4th 904, 915.)

For a motion to be relieved as counsel under Code of Civil Procedure section 284, subdivision (2), California Rules of Court, rule 3.1362 requires (1) a notice of motion and motion directed to the client (made on the Notice of Motion and Motion to be Relieved as Counsel -- Civil form (MC-051)); (2) a declaration stating in general terms and without compromising the confidentiality of the attorney-client relationship why a motion under Code of Civil Procedure section 284, subdivision (2) is brought instead of filing a consent under Code of Civil Procedure section 284, subdivision (1) (made on the Declaration in Support of Attorney's Motion to Be Relieved as Counsel -- Civil form (MC-052)); (3) service of the notice of motion and motion, declaration, and proposed order on the client and on all other parties who have appeared in the case; and (4) the proposed order relieving counsel (prepared on the Order Granting Attorney's Motion to Be Relieved as Counsel -- Civil form (MC-053)).

The court finds that Plaintiffs' Counsel (1) has served Plaintiffs with the moving papers filed in connection with these motions (i) at Plaintiffs' last known addresses, which Plaintiffs Counsel has confirmed by email is current, and (ii) by electronic service, directed to the emails used to communicate during this action, and (2) has served the defendants with the moving papers filed in connection with these motions by mail. (MC-052, ¶¶ 3, subds. (a)(2), (b)(2)(b), (b)(2)(d), 7; July 17, 2026 Proof of Service.) The court also finds that Plaintiffs' Counsel has shown sufficient reasons why the motions should be granted, and why Plaintiffs' Counsel has brought the motion under Code of Civil Procedure section 284, subdivision (2) instead of filing a consent under section 284, subdivision (1). (MC-052, ¶ 2.)

The court therefore grants Plaintiffs' Counsel's motions to be relieved as counsel for Plaintiffs.

Dolan Law Firm, P.C. will be relieved as counsel of record for plaintiffs Marlen Solano and Ulises Rangel effective upon the filing of the proof of service of the signed "Order Granting Attorney's Motion to be Relieved as Counsel – Civil" on the clients.

The court orders Dolan

Law Firm, P.C. (1) to give notice of this ruling and the signed "Order Granting Attorney's Motion to be Relieved as Counsel – to plaintiffs Marlen Solano and Ulises Rangel, and (2) to file a proof of service of the notice of this ruling and the signed "Order Granting Attorney's Motion to be Relieved as Counsel – on plaintiffs Marlen Solano and Ulises Rangel no later than August 27, 2026.

Civil"

Civil"

IT IS SO ORDERED.
