

Errors in Proposed Judgment

The proposed judgment fails to include the unknown defendants, the common and legal description of the subject property, and the date as of which the determination is sought.

The court further notes that it appears that plaintiffs are seeking to quiet title on the basis of reformation of deed as evidenced by the cause of action for declaratory relief and specific allegations pertaining to mutual mistake in the complaint. However, the proposed judgment is silent as to that relief.

Accordingly, the application for default judgment is denied without prejudice.

Pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 3.1312(a), and Code of Civil Procedure section 1019.5, subdivision (a), no further written order is necessary. The minute order adopting this tentative ruling will serve as the order of the court and service by the clerk will constitute notice of the order.
