Legal

Standard

California Rules of Court, Rule 9.40 contains the requirements for a pro hac vice application.

Subdivision (a) mandates that to be eligible for pro pro hac vice admission, the applicant must be an attorney of good standing and eligible to practice in any bar of the United States court or the highest court of any state, who has been retained to appear in a particular cause pending in a court of this state. Such person may in the court's discretion be permitted to appear pro hac vice upon written application. The applicant must not be a resident of California, regularly employed in California, or regularly engaged in substantial business in California.

Pursuant to subdivision (c), the applicant must submit a verified application for pro hac vice admission with notice of hearing provided to all parties.

Pursuant to subdivision (d) the application must state:

- the applicant's residence and office address;
- the courts to which the applicant has been admitted to practice and the dates of admission;
- that the applicant is a licensee in good standing in those courts;
- that the applicant is not currently suspended or disbarred in any court;
- the title of each court and cause of action in which the applicant has filed an application to appear pro hac vice in this state in the preceding two years, the date of each application, and whether or not it was granted;
- the name, address, and telephone number of the active licensee of the State Bar of California who is attorney of record.

Pursuant to subdivision (e) the applicant must pay a reasonable fee not to exceed $500 to the State Bar along with a copy of the application that is served on the State Bar.

Discussion

Attorney John J. Solomon, an attorney with Stradley Ronon Stevens & Young, LLP, seeks admission to appear pro hac vice in this action on behalf of Defendant BHC Alhambra Hospital, Inc. Upon review, the Court finds Mr. Solomon satisfies the requirements of California Rules of Court, rule 9.40.

Mr. Solomon declares that he is not regularly employed in California and does not engage in substantial business, professional, or other activities in California, as required by rule 9.40(a). He provides his residential address in Downingtown, Pennsylvania, and his office address in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. (Solomon Decl., ¶¶ 1-2, 6.)

Mr. Solomon declares that he was admitted to the Bar of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in 2025 and is a member in good standing. He further declares that he is not admitted to practice before any federal courts. (Solomon Decl., ¶¶ 3-4.)

He further affirms that he is not currently suspended or disbarred in any court. (Solomon Decl., ¶ 5.)

Mr. Solomon states that he has filed no applications to appear pro hac vice in California within the past two years. (Solomon Decl., ¶ 7.)

In compliance with rule 9.40(d)(6), Mr. Solomon identifies Moira S. Brennan (SBN 242126), an active California attorney with Buchholz, Harris, Levine & Brennan, P.C., as local counsel. Ms. Brennan declares that Mr. Solomon and his firm have been involved in all substantive issues in the case, that Defendant seeks to have him serve as co-counsel and trial counsel, and that she consents to his association as counsel of record. Mr. Brennan's office is located at 101 W. Broadway, Suite 1400, San Diego, California 92101. (Solomon Decl., ¶ 8; Brennan Decl., ¶¶ 3-6.)

Pursuant to rule 9.40(e), applicants must submit the required fee to the State Bar of California and serve a copy of the application on the State Bar. Counsel provides evidence that the application and fee were submitted to the State Bar of California. (Brennan Decl., ¶ 7.)

Based on the foregoing, the application is GRANTED.
