Lin v. Confluent Health CA, LLC

TENTATIVE RULING

Plaintiff's motions to compel initial responses to Form Interrogatories, General, Set One (CRS #2832); Special Interrogatories, Set One (CRS #0737); Form Interrogatories—Employment, Set One (CRS #2850); and Requests for Production of Documents, Set One (CRS #2057), are MOOT with respect to the responses and GRANTED with respect to the requests for sanctions.

Because responses were not served until after the motions were filed, and there was no order staying discovery, the Court can not find that Defendant acted with substantial justification.

Counsel's hourly rate of $500 per hour is high for a second-year attorney whose admission date is November 2024. The Court will award an hourly rate of $300 per hour. Mr. Khatib attests that he spent four hours preparing each motion and requests compensation for appearing at four hearings, one for each motion. The Court also finds that the hours claimed were unreasonable. The motions are relatively straightforward because no responses were served and no oppositions were filed.

The Court awards three hours per motion, for a total of $3,600. The Court awards an additional 0.5 hours for attending one hearing on all four motions. The total sanctions award is $3,750, against Defendant and Defendant's counsel, jointly and severally, payable to Plaintiff's counsel within 30 days.

Moving party to give notice.

Parties who intend to submit on this tentative must send an email to the Court at indicating intention to submit on the tentative, and copying all parties in the email communication. Please be advised that if you submit on the tentative and elect not to appear at the hearing, the opposing party may nevertheless appear at the hearing and argue the matter. Unless you receive a submission from all other parties in the matter, you should assume that others might appear at the hearing to argue. If the Court does not receive emails from the parties indicating submission on this tentative ruling and there are no appearances at the hearing, the Court will adopt the tentative as the final order, or take the matter off calendar at its discretion.
