

statute as it does not appear that any such depositions proceeded prior to the filing of the application.

Second, plaintiffs request the court order that the depositions of defendants' experts proceed on dates which were previously offered by defendants. This request is denied as it is unsupported by statutory authority. Plaintiffs' request to permit plaintiffs' expert depositions to proceed after the expert discovery cutoff date is likewise denied. The court notes that scheduling issues such as those raised by the application can and should be resolved through good faith meet and confer and compromise between counsel. Counsel are reminded of their obligations in that regard.

5. S-CV-0051782 American Express NB v. Rode, Leon

If oral argument is requested, it will be heard in Department 32 by the Honorable Trisha J. Hirashima.

Motion to Enforce Settlement

Plaintiff moves to set aside dismissal and enter judgment on stipulation pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 664.6 in the amount of $30,039.81 in principal damages plus costs of $655 for a total judgment of $30,694.81. Defendants have not filed any opposition.

The unopposed motion is granted. (Code Civ. Proc., § 664.6.) The dismissal entered May 21, 2024 is hereby set aside and judgment is entered for plaintiff as against defendants in the amount of $30,694.81 ($30,039.81 in principal damages and costs of $655).

6. S-CV-0052333 Ivancich, Larry v. Safeway Inc.

Defendant's Motion to Compel Further Response to Special Interrogatory No. 62

Defendant moves to compel further response to special interrogatory no. 62. Plaintiff opposes the motion.

The court notes defendant failed to comply with Code of Civil Procedure 3.1345 (a)(2) by failing to provide a separate statement in support of its motion to compel further response to special interrogatory no. 62.

The court admonishes defendant on its failure to strictly adhere to Code of Civil Procedure 3.1345 (a)(2). However, as defendant reproduced the entirety of special interrogatory no. 62 and plaintiff's response in its moving papers, the court will review the merits.

By filing the subject lawsuit which seeks recovery for personal injuries and general damages, plaintiff put his medical condition at issue in the case. The request for medical treatment sought by special interrogatory no. 62 is limited to the timeframe of March 1, 2025, through the present. Defendant is entitled to discovery into any information that may prove or disprove an element of a claim or defense.

Defendant's motion to compel further response to special interrogatory no. 62 is granted. Defendant shall serve a further response within 10 days of service of notice of entry of the court's order.

Plaintiff's request for sanctions for responding to this motion is denied.

7. S-CV-0055053 Jacobson, Annika v. Warren T Eich Middle School

Defendant Roseville City School District's Demurrer to First Amended Complaint and Motion for Sanctions is continued to August 11, 2026, at 8:30 a.m. in Department 32.

8. S-CV-0055442 Davis, Andrew v. Temco Logistics

If oral argument is requested, it will be heard in Department 32 by the Honorable Trisha J. Hirashima.

Defendant is advised the notice of motion must include notice of the court's tentative ruling procedures. (Local Rule 20.2.3(C).)

Motion to Compel

Defendant Home Express Delivery Service, LLC dba Temco Logistics' unopposed motion to compel responses to form interrogatories, set one, is granted. (Code Civ. Proc., § 2030.290.) Plaintiff shall serve defendant written responses, without objections, to form interrogatories, set one, within 15 days of service of notice of entry of order.

Defendant's request for monetary sanctions is denied. However, plaintiff is admonished that repeated failures to comply with discovery obligations may lead the court to find an abuse of the discovery process and award sanctions on that basis. (Laguna Auto Body v. Farmers Ins. Exchange (1991) 231 Cal.App.3d 481, overruled on other grounds in Garcia v. McCutchen (1997) 16 Cal.4th 459, 478, fn. 4.)

Motion to Compel

Defendant Home Express Delivery Service, LLC dba Temco Logistics' unopposed motion to compel responses to requests for production of documents, set one, is granted. (Code Civ. Proc., § 2031.300.) Plaintiff shall serve defendant written responses and responsive documents, without objections, to requests for production of documents, set one, within 15 days of service of notice of entry of order.

Defendant's request for monetary sanctions is denied. However, plaintiff is admonished that repeated failures to comply with discovery obligations may lead the court to find an abuse of the discovery process and award sanctions on that basis. (Laguna Auto Body v.
