

		service other than personal service. The proof of service Petitioner filed shows service was made by email. That is not sufficient. Respondent, however, has waived or corrected these deficiencies. Respondent states it does not oppose being ordered to arbitration. Respondent included as part of one of its exhibits to the opposition a declaration Petitioner's counsel apparently served on Respondent regarding the non-existence of any worker's compensation claim. And Respondent filed an opposition without any objection to the method of service, thereby waiving the service defect. Accordingly, based on Respondent's agreement and willingness to submit the claim to arbitration, the petition is GRANTED and Respondent, along with Petitioner, are ordered to submit their underinsured motorist dispute to arbitration in accordance with Plaintiff's insurance policy with Respondent. Petitioner's petition also includes a request for attorney fees, but fails to cite any statutory or contractual basis for an attorney fee award. Moreover, to the extent there was any legal basis for an award of attorney fees, Petitioner failed to present in evidence to establish an amount to be awarded, such as a declaration by counsel or billing statements. Accordingly, the request for attorney fees is DENIED. Petitioner's counsel is ordered to give notice of this ruling.

10.	Michael A Plaia vs. Alina V Plaia 2020-01175527	Before the court is the motion of judgment creditor Michael A. Plaia (Creditor) to compel further responses from judgment debtor Alina V. Plaia (Debtor) to Creditor's requests for production of documents, set one. As more full set forth below, the motion is GRANTED. As an initial matter, the court notes the proof of service for the motion lists an incorrect mailing address for Debtor (92 Brandisi versus 92 Brindisis). The motion, however, also was served on Debtor by email pursuant to an email service agreement between the parties, and at the same email address for Debtor as listed in the court's records. Moreover, Debtor filed an untimely opposition without
