

		v. Tenet Healthcare Corp., supra at 1110–1111 [“Evidence of the ratification may come in many forms, for example where an employer fails to terminate, investigate, or respond to charges that an employee has committed an intentional tort”]; FAC ¶ 17 [alleging ratification] ¶ 36 [“Defendants ratified Perpetrator(s)’ sexual abuse of Plaintiff because Defendants had actual knowledge that Perpetrator(s) had sexually harassed and abused minors, including but not limited to Plaintiff, yet they intentionally turned a blind eye and still allowed Perpetrator(s) to work for Defendants, and did nothing to prevent any further abuse from occurring ... Defendants did not discipline or discharge Perpetrator(s); as such, they accepted and thus ratified his/her conduct”]; ¶ 42 [same].) Finally, the FAC is not so uncertain (Code Civ. Proc., § 430.10, subd. (f)) that moving defendant cannot reasonably determine what issues must be admitted or denied, or what counts or claims are directed against it. (Khoury v. Maly's of Calif., Inc. (1993) 14 Cal.App.4th 612, 616; see also Lickiss v. Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (2012) 208 Cal.App.4th 1125, 1135 [uncertainty demurrers “strictly construe[d] ... because ambiguities can reasonably be clarified under modern rules of discovery”].) Plaintiff is granted 10 days’ leave to amend the 3rd and 6th causes of action. Moving party shall give notice.
