

	30-2023-01347925-CU-PN-CJC	Cross-Defendants Hoang Huy Tu and The Tu Firm, APLC's (collectively, "Tu Defendants") motion to strike the First Amended Cross-Complaint ("FACC") of Adore Escrow, Inc. ("Adore") is GRANTED. "Following an order sustaining a demurrer or a motion for judgment on the pleadings with leave to amend, the plaintiff may amend his or her complaint only as authorized by the court's order." (Harris v. Wachovia Mortg., FSB (2010) 185 Cal.App.4th 1018, 1023.) "The plaintiff may not amend the complaint to add a new cause of action without having obtained permission to do so, unless the new cause of action is within the scope of the order granting leave to amend." (Ibid.) The Court's ruling on the prior demurrer did not give Adore leave to add new causes of action. The FACC filed 2/2/2026 (ROA 553) is STRICKEN. The 6/26/2026 hearing on cross-defendant, Provident Title Company's demurrer to FACC is VACATED, because there is no longer an operative pleading to demur to. The court will give Adore one final opportunity to amend the cross-complaint in strict compliance with the court's 1/23/2026 order. Adore is given 5 days leave to amend. If Adore chooses to amend, Adore is ORDERED to file a red-lined and clean copy of the amended pleading. Clerk to give notice.
