

|            |                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|------------|----------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|            |                                                                | The order relieving counsel will be effective upon counsel filing proof of service of a copy of the signed order on the client and on all parties that have appeared in the case. (California Rules of Court, Rule 3.1362(e).) Moving attorney to give notice.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 103 | James Bay Resources Limited vs. Lockett & Horwitz, 23-01313001 | Off-Calendar.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 104 | Ju vs. Yeo, 23-01347065                                        | Defendant JUNG MI YEO ("YEO") will move the court for an order to stay the instant case during the adjudication of an earlier lawsuit pending in a different jurisdiction with identical claims, facts, and parties ("MOTION TO STAY"). Farmland Irr. Co. v. Dopplmaier (1957) 48 Cal.2d 208 advises: "When an action is brought in a court of this state involving the same parties and the same subject matter as an action already pending in a court of another jurisdiction, a stay of the California proceedings is not a matter of right, but within the sound discretion of the trial court. In exercising its discretion the court should consider the importance of discouraging multiple litigation designed solely to harass an adverse party, and of avoiding unseemly conflicts with the courts of other jurisdictions. It should also consider whether the rights of the parties can best be determined by the court of the other jurisdiction because of the nature of the subject matter, the availability of witnesses, or the stage to which the proceedings in the other court have already advanced." [Farmland Irr. Co. v. Dopplmaier (1957) 48 Cal.2d 208, 215.] Here, Defendant argues this case should be stayed while a dissolution case proceeds in Seoul, Korea between Plaintiff Sae Heung Ju and Defendant Jung Mi Yeo. Based on Attorneys John A. S. Baik (defense counsel herein) and Jae Hoon Choi (Moving party's attorney in Korea case) representations; and after considering the |