Tentative Ruling:

APPEARANCE ORDERED (Zoom not allowed)

The Court questions whether or not due diligence has been established to waive notice of petition for guardianship on the paternal grandmother. The declaration submitted in support thereof does not include any statement from anyone who has actually attempted to notify her. Moreover, the minor himself stated in his declaration in support of the petitions that he speaks to his paternal grandmother weekly. As such, there is insufficient evidence to support a finding that he cannot serve her or in the alternative have her submit a signed waiver of notice. Moreover, the proposed order for guardianship must list at item 2b, by name, who precisely it is that petitioner is seeking relief from providing notice. Simply stating "any unnoticed party" is insufficient.
