

responses on August 20, 2025. (Id. at ¶ 9, Exhibit 8.) The instant motion was filed on September 16, 2025.

The trial court has discretion in determining whether adequate meet and confer efforts preceded the filing of the motion. (Obregon v. Superior Court (1998) 67 Cal.App.4th 424 [factors include complexity of discovery issues, history of counsel in prior disputes, judge's gut feeling; sending one brief letter 13 days prior to deadline to file motion was not sufficient attempt].) The purposes behind the meet and confer requirement are to force the parties to reexamine their positions, and to narrow their disputes to the “irreducible minimum” before asking the court to resolve them. (Weil & Brown, Civil Procedure Before Trial, § 8:1159, pp. 8F-65 and 8F-66; See also Clement v. Alegre (2009) 177 Cal.App.4th 1277, 1281, quoting Townsend v. Superior Court (1998) 61 Cal.App.4th 1431 [“‘informal resolution’ of discovery disputes ‘entails something more than bickering with (opposing counsel).’ Rather, the statute ‘requires that there be a serious effort at negotiation and informal resolution.’”])

Plaintiff’s efforts to meet and confer were not adequate. Plaintiff’s initial meet and confer letter was sufficiently detailed. However, Plaintiff did not attempt to reduce the parties’ disputes to the irreducible minimum before resorting to motion practice. DANTES’s response to the meet and confer letter demonstrates willingness to cooperate and provide further responses if certain requests were reissued. Notably, DANTES in fact further responded to requests for admission #47 and 48, but there is no evidence before the court that Plaintiff attempted to meet and confer on those requests before continuing to include them in the instant motion.

Conclusion. Plaintiff’s motion is denied due to insufficient efforts to meet and confer.

KELSTIN GROUP, INC. vs. JAMIE LYNN LARA
Case No. FCM163685

Motion to Set Aside Default Judgment and Quash Service of Summons

TENTATIVE RULING

Upon further briefing, Defendant's motion to set aside default and default judgment and motion to quash service of summons is GRANTED.

Defendant's Motion to Dismiss is GRANTED.

Based upon the evidence presented, the Court finds that the Defendant was not validly served with the Summons and Complaint and that three years have now passed since the Plaintiff filed its Complaint.

The Court need not and does not make any finding on whether the "proof of service on file is false." (Defendant's supplemental brief, pg. 1:27)
