Case No.: 24STCV10426

Matter: Motion to Compel

Moving Party: Plaintiff Antonyan Vardan

Responding Party: Defendants Michael Chulak and Californiacids.com

Notice: OK

Ruling: The Motion is granted in part.

The Court encourages all parties to appear remotely via LA CourtConnect. If submitting on the Court's tentative ruling, please follow the instructions provided above.

On May 28, 2025, Plaintiff Antonyan Vardan filed the operative Second Amended Complaint ("SAC") asserting 24 causes of action. Plaintiff alleges that after he objected to an unpermitted gate, Defendant "Kazamel orchestrated a retaliatory and procedurally invalid vote to remove him [from the HOA board]. That marked the beginning of a targeted effort to silence and eliminate Plaintiff. Over the following years, he faced illegal vehicle tows, wage garnishment, perjured testimony in court, denial of HOA election rights, and mass defamatory communications—all designed to isolate him socially and professionally. Coordinated actions by HOA members, attorneys, and vendors—under Kazamel's leadership— culminated in Plaintiff's job loss, failed businesses, and personal bankruptcy in 2025.”

Plaintiff now seeks to compel further responses to his RFPs from Michael Chulak and Californiacids.com.

Defendants' procedural objection is overruled given their filing of an opposition.

The Motion is denied as to RFP nos 2, 4, 5, 13, and 17 because the response was sufficient.

The Motion is granted as to RFP nos. 6 because the objection as to privacy lacks merit.

The Motion is granted as to RFP no. 10 because not all documents would necessarily be privileged and no privilege log was provided.

The Motion is granted as to RFP no. 15 because the objections lack merit.

Further responses are to be provided within 20 days. No sanctions.
