CASE: Maritza Rivera v. Wound Pros, P.C.

CASE NO.: 24STCV19343

MOTION

TO BE RELIEVED AS COUNSEL

MOVING PARTY: Monica

M. Quinn, Littler Mendelson P.C.

RESPONDING PARTY: No opposition

I. INTRODUCTION

On June 9, 2026, Monica M. Quinn, counsel for Defendant, Wound Pros P.C., filed this Motion

to be Relieved As Counsel.

The motion is unopposed.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

California Rules of Court, rule 3.1362 (Motion to Be Relieved as Counsel) requires (1) notice of motion and motion to be directed to the client (made on the Notice of Motion and Motion to be Relieved as Counsel—Civil form (MC-051)); (2) a declaration stating in general terms and without compromising the confidentiality of the attorney-client relationship why a motion under Code of Civil Procedure section 284(2) is brought instead of filing a consent under Code of Civil Procedure section 284(1) (made on the Declaration in Support of Attorney's Motion to Be Relieved as Counsel—Civil form (MC-052));

(3) service of the notice of motion and motion and declaration on all other parties who have appeared in the case; and (4) the proposed order relieving counsel (prepared on the Order Granting Attorney's Motion to Be Relieved as Counsel—Civil form (MC-053)).^{1 2 3}

^{4 5}

The court has discretion to allow an attorney to withdraw, and such a motion should be granted provided that there is no prejudice to the client, and it does not disrupt the orderly process of justice.⁶ (See Ramirez

v. Sturdevant (1994) 21 Cal.App.4th 904, 915.)^{7 8 9 10}

III. DISCUSSION

Defense counsel seeks to be relieved as counsel of record for the following reasons:

4. This motion is brought on professional-considerations grounds consistent with California Rules of Professional Conduct, rule 1.16(b).

In particular, withdrawal is warranted under rule 1.16(b)(4) because the Client, by its conduct, has rendered it unreasonably difficult for the Firm to carry out the representation effectively, and under rule 1.16(b)(10) because there is good cause for withdrawal under the totality of the circumstances described below.

5. The facts establishing these grounds are as follows.

Effective December 12, 2025, Wound Pros Management Group, Inc., along with its managed entity, Global Wound Care Medical Group ceased all business and clinical operations across all states in which patient services were provided.

The cessation of operations was publicly announced and was attributed to financial challenges and regulatory changes affecting wound care services. A true and correct copy of that announcement is attached as Exhibit A.

6. The Firm's prior contacts for this Client have each left the organization. Prior to their departure, they suggested the matter be transferred to Dentons, which is bankruptcy counsel for Global Wound Care Medical Group. The Firm has since attempted to transition this matter to Dentons.

7. Dentons has declined to defend this case, taking the position that Global Wound Care Medical Group is not the named defendant, which is "Wound Pros, P.C." As a result, the Firm has been unable to obtain a substitution of counsel. The remaining officials at Wound Pros Management Group, Inc. have asserted that they are a separate entity with no relation to this matter. On information and belief, there are no remaining officers or employees able to participate in this litigation on behalf of the Client or pay for the Firm's legal fees.

(Form

MC-052, Attachment 2.)

Absent a showing of resulting prejudice, an attorney's request for withdrawal should be granted. (People v. Prince (1968) 268

Cal.App.2d 398, 406.)

Upon review, the court finds the Motion complies with California Rules of Court, rule 3.1362.

IV. CONCLUSION

Accordingly, the unopposed Motion to Be Relieved as Counsel is GRANTED and effective upon the filing of the proof of service of this signed order upon Defendant. 2

Order to Show Cause Re: Status of Counsel for Defendant date and time to be determined at the hearing.

Counsel to give notice.
