Case Number: 26NWCV00561 Hearing Date: June 23, 2026 Dept: L

Plaintiff Tae Kyoung Hwang's Applications

for Writ of Attachment as to Defendants Bella Assets, LLC, Bloomfield MGMT, LLC, and Won Suk Kim Real Estate, Inc. are GRANTED.

Plaintiff is ordered to post a

$10,000.00 undertaking for each Application.

Plaintiff must submit amended

Right to Attach Orders reflecting the corrected amount to be attached with the proper interest calculation based on today's hearing date.

Plaintiff to give notice.

Background

This is an action for breach of contract. On February 17, 2026, Plaintiff Tae Kyoung Hwang ("Plaintiff") filed this action against Defendants Wonnie Won-Suk Kim ("Kim"), Erica Eun Ah Kim ("Erica"),

Bella Assets, LLC ("Bella"), 13330 Bloomfield MGMT, LLC ("Bloomfield"), Won Suk

Kim Real Estate, Inc. ("WSKRE"), (collectively, "Defendants") and Does 1 to 20.

The Complaint alleges that Defendants "obtained monies from various individual lenders and/or investors to pay their other lenders and/or investors with promise unfounded guarantee of return of an annual interest income." (Compl., ¶ 18.)

The Complaint alleges that, on November 21, 2025, Plaintiff loaned Bella $300,000.00, as a conduit for Kim. The loan was evidenced by a promissory note ("Note"). (Compl., ¶ 19, Exh. A.) The loan was secured by a Second Deed of Trust on real property located at 15917 Prairie Ave., Lawndale, CA 90260. The Note stated that Bella agreed to pay Plaintiff an interest payment of $3,500.00 per month. On December 12, 2026, Plaintiff demanded return of his money when he found out that Kim and Bella were having financial issues and would not be able to pay the interest payments. Defendants thereafter failed to pay back all interest payments and the unpaid balance when due (January 5, 2026).

The Complaint alleges the following causes of action: 1) Breach Of Contract (Promissory Note), 2) Account Stated, 3) Open Book Account, 4) Fraud - Promissory Fraud, 5) Fraud – Concealment, 6) Civil Conspiracy Fraud, 7) Alter Ego, and 8) Constructive Trust.

On April 2 and 3, 2026, default was entered as to all Defendants.

Plaintiff now applies for three

Writs of Attachment as to all the property of Defendants Bella, Bloomfield, and WSKRE. The amount to be secured by the attachment is $324,500.00.

No oppositions have been filed as of June 22, 2026.

As the three Applications for Writ of Attachment are identical, the Court will address them concurrently.

Legal Standard

“Upon the filing of the complaint or at any time thereafter, the plaintiff may apply pursuant to this article for a right to attach order and a writ of attachment by filing an application for the order and writ with the court in which the action is brought.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 484.010.)

The application shall be executed under oath and must include:

1. a statement showing that the attachment is sought to secure the recovery on a claim upon which an attachment may be issued;

2. a statement of the amount to be secured by the attachment;

3. a statement that the attachment is not sought for a purpose other than the recovery on the claim upon which the attachment is based;

4. a statement that the applicant has no information or belief that the claim is discharged or that the prosecution of the action is stayed in a proceeding under the Bankruptcy Act (11 U.S.C. section 101 et seq.); and

5. a description of the property to be attached under the writ of attachment and a statement that the plaintiff is informed and believes that such property is subject to attachment.

(Code Civ. Proc., § 484.020.)

“The application [for a writ of attachment] shall be supported by an affidavit showing that the plaintiff on the facts presented would be entitled to a judgment on the claim upon which the attachment is based.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 484.030.) Statutory attachment procedures are purely creations of the legislature and as such “are subject to strict construction.” (Hobbs v. Weiss (1999) 73 Cal.App.4th 76, 79 (internal quotations omitted).) A judge does not have authority to order any attachment that is not provided for by the attachment statutes. (Jordan-Lyon

Productions, Ltd. v. Cineplex Odeon Corp. (1994) 29 Cal.App.4th 1459, 1466.) “In contested applications, the court must consider the relative merits of the positions of the respective parties and make a determination of the probable outcome of the litigation." (Id. at p. 80 (ellipses and internal quotations omitted).)

The Court shall issue a right to attach order if the Court finds all of the following:

1. The claim upon which the attachment is based is one upon which an attachment may be issued.

2. The plaintiff has established the probable validity of the claim upon which the attachment is based.

3. The attachment is not sought for a purpose other than the recovery on the claim upon which the attachment is based.

4. The amount to be secured by the attachment is greater than zero.

(Code Civ. Proc., § 484.090.)

Discussion

i.

Basis of Attachment and Amount

The Court shall issue a right to attach order if the claim upon which the attachment is based is one upon which an attachment may be issued. (Code Civ. Proc., § 484.090.) “[A]n attachment may be issued only in an action on a claim or claims for money, each of which is based upon a contract, express or implied, where the total amount of the claim or claims is a fixed or readily ascertainable amount not less than five hundred dollars ($500) exclusive of costs, interest, and attorney’s fees.” (Code Civ.

Proc., § 483.010, subd. (a).)

Plaintiff states that the attachment may be properly issued in this action on a claim for money, based on a contract, where the total amount exceeds $500.00. (Applications, ¶ 3.)

Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to a writ of attachment as to the principal payment due under the Note ($300,000.00), plus contractual interest through the hearing date of August 4, 2026 ($24,500.00), totaling $324,500.00.

(Applications, ¶ 8; Hwang Decls., ¶ 14.)

The Court notes that the hearing date was advanced to today’s date, and thus, Plaintiff must submit amended

Right to Attach Orders reflecting the corrected amount to be attached with the proper interest calculation.

The Court finds that the writ of attachment is based on a breach of contract claim for a readily ascertainable amount of money exceeding $500.00. (See Compl.) Thus, there is a basis for attachment.

ii.

Probable Validity of Plaintiff's Claims

"A claim has 'probable validity'

where it is more likely than not that the plaintiff will obtain a judgment against the defendant on that claim." (Code of Civ. Proc., §481.190.) "If the defendant opposes the application, 'the court must then consider the relative merits of the positions of the respective parties and make a determination of the probable outcome of the litigation.' [Citations.]" (Pech v. Morgan (2021) 61 Cal.App.5th 841, 855.)

To state a cause of action for breach of contract, Plaintiff must be able to establish "(1) the existence of the contract, (2) plaintiff's performance or excuse for nonperformance, (3) defendant's breach, and (4) the resulting damages to the plaintiff." (Oasis West Realty, LLC v. Goldman (2011) 51 Cal.4th 811, 821.)

Plaintiff offers the following evidence in arguing that Plaintiff's claim has probable validity:

On November 21, 2025, Plaintiff loaned Bella

$300,000.00, as evidenced by the Note. (Hwang Decls., ¶ 4, Exh. 2.) Under the Note's terms, Bella agreed to pay Plaintiff an interest payment of $3,500.00 per month and repay the principal sum of $300,000 one year from date of deposit.

The loan was secured by a Second Deed of Trust on real property located at 15917 Prairie Avenue, Lawndale, CA 90260. (Hwang Dcls., ¶ 4, Exh.) However, no Second Deed of Trust has been recorded to secure Plaintiff's loan. (Hwang Decls., ¶ 6.)

Defendants thereafter failed to pay any interest payments or the principal amount on the loan, despite Plaintiff's demand. (Hwang Dcls., ¶¶ 9-11, Exh. 3.)

Bella, Bloomfield, WSRE, Kim, and Eric are alter egos of one another such that their assets were commingled and exchanged without consideration. (Hwang Decls., ¶ 12.)

No opposition has been filed.

The Court finds that

Plaintiff has established probable validity of the breach of contract claim.

iii.

Purpose and Bankruptcy Status

In compliance with Code of Civil Procedure section 484.020, subdivisions (c) and (d), Plaintiff states that 1) attachment is not sought for a purpose other than the recovery on a claim upon which the attachment is based, 2) Plaintiff is not seeking attachment of Defendants' property for any purpose other than recovery for my claim, and 3) Plaintiff has no information or believe that my claim is discharged or has been stayed by any bankruptcy proceeding. (Applications, ¶¶ 3-5; Hwang Decls., ¶ 3.)

iv.

Description of the Property

Code of Civil Procedure section

487.010, subdivision (a) states that, where the defendant is a corporation, all corporate property for which a method of levy is provided in Section 488.300, et seq. is subject to attachment.

Plaintiff seeks to attach any property of Defendants. (Applications, ¶ 9(a).)

by Bloomfield is subject to attachment: 13330 Bloomfield Ave Norwalk, CA 90650,

APN 8045-008-001 (currently listed for sale). (Hwang Decls., ¶ 2.)

v.

Undertaking

“Before issuance of a writ of attachment. . .the plaintiff shall file an undertaking to pay the defendant any amount the defendant may recover for any wrongful attachment by the plaintiff in the action.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 489.210.)

“Except as provided in subdivision (b), , the amount of an undertaking filed pursuant to this article shall be ten thousand dollars ($10,000).” (Code Civ. Proc., § 489.220, subd.

(a).) “If, upon objection to the undertaking, the court determines that the probable recovery for wrongful attachment exceeds the amount of the undertaking, it shall order the amount of the undertaking increased to the amount it determines to be the probable recovery for wrongful attachment if it is ultimately determined that the attachment was wrongful.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 489.220, subd. (b).)

Plaintiff has not yet filed an undertaking. (Applications, ¶ 15.) Defendants do not object to the amount of the undertaking. Plaintiff is thus required to pay a $10,000.00 undertaking for each Application.

Conclusion

Based on the foregoing,

Plaintiff's Applications for Writ of Attachment as to Defendants Bella, Bloomfield, and WSKRE are granted.

Plaintiff is ordered to post a

$10,000.00 undertaking for each Application.

As previously stated, Plaintiff must submit amended Right to Attach Orders reflecting the corrected amount to be attached with the proper interest calculation based on today's hearing date.
