ANGELA WESEMAN vs

TAMARA HOEHN, Case No. 25NWCV04256

Plaintiff Angela Weseman

applies ex parte for an order compelling Defendant to comply with the Court's order dated May 11, 2026 re inspection of property. On May 11, 2026, the Court ruled that Plaintiff shall be allowed to inspect the premises with an appraiser within 45 days, or a later date as agreed upon by the parties.

(5/11/26 Minute Order.) Plaintiff now seeks to inspect the premises with Craig

Gilbert, an appraiser, and Rob Magnotta, a real estate agent with expertise in property management. (Emge Decl., ¶6.) This arrangement was refused by Jose

Pulido, counsel for Defendant Tamara Hoehn, who stated that Plaintiff Weseman and Rob Magnotta will not be permitted into residence. (Id., ¶7.) While Plaintiff seeks to inspect the property with a real estate agent, who was not listed by the Court as a person permitted to inspect the property in the May 11 order, the addition of a real estate agent is reasonable because the purpose of the inspection is to assist the parties in determining the property's fair market value. Hence, an inspection of the property may be conducted by Plaintiff, Plaintiff's counsel, an appraiser, and a real estate agent.

The ex parte application is GRANTED. Moving party to give notice.
