CASE NO.: 25STCV11193

[TENTATIVE] ORDER OVERRULING DEMURRER

Dept. 506

8:30 a.m.

June 23, 2026

On

September 4, 2025, Plaintiff Sam Elawamry filed a first amended complaint ("FAC") against Defendants Julianne Davis and Julian Strongman. The FAC seeks to establish an easement on Defendants' property, which is adjacent to Plaintiff's property.

On

October 24, 2025, Defendants filed a demurrer.

demurrer for sufficiency tests whether the complaint states a cause of action. (Hahn v. Mirda (2007) 147 Cal.App.4th 740, 747.) When considering demurrers, courts read the allegations liberally and in context, accepting the alleged facts as true. (Nolte v. Cedars-Sinai Medical Center (2015) 236 Cal.App.4th 1401, 1406.) A special demurrer for uncertainty under Code of Civil Procedure section 430.10, subdivision (f) is disfavored and will only be sustained where the pleading is so bad that defendant or plaintiff cannot reasonably respond—i.e., cannot reasonably determine what issues must be admitted or denied, or what counts or claims are directed against him or her. (Khoury v. Maly's of Calif., Inc.

(1993) 14 Cal.App.4th 612, 616.)

Defendants

argue that Plaintiff cannot establish a prescriptive easement because the FAC does not allege facts that constitute the requisite hostile use. (Demurrer at p. 4.) But the FAC does allege that Plaintiff's property

"does not have access to the power lines or utilities without the use of the power lines crossing 1070 Mesita," Plaintiff "has no authority or permission to use the power lines that cross 1070 Mesita," and "Defendants have also refused to allow Plaintiff to assist in granting any licenses to the City of Pasadena for the authority to enter the easement area and conduct maintenance and/or upgrade activities." (FAC ¶¶ 48, 52, 54.)

Moreover,

Plaintiff seeks to quiet title in an easement by necessity, not a prescriptive easement. (See FAC ¶¶ 46-62.) "An easement by way of necessity arises by operation of law when it is established that (1) there is a strict necessity for the right-of-way, as when the claimant's property is landlocked and (2) the dominant and servient tenements were under the same ownership at the time of the conveyance giving rise to the necessity.” (Moore v. Walsh (1995) 38 Cal.App.4th 1046, 1049.) The FAC alleges common ownership before the properties were split. (FAC ¶¶ 47-48) An easement is necessary because there is no way to access the power lines on Plaintiff’s property without an easement on Defendants’ property. (FAC ¶¶ 49-62.)

Defendants

also argue that Plaintiff cannot unilaterally impose a public easement. (Demurrer at pp. 5-8.) As pleaded, Plaintiff seeks a private easement for his own access the power lines, which will then provide him with “authority for Plaintiff to grant permission to any utility or contractor Plaintiff needs to maintain and upgrade the power lines.”

(FAC ¶ 55.)

Finally,

Defendants argue that Plaintiff cannot state a claim for quiet title or declaratory relief because he does not allege a cognizable interest. (See Demurrer at pp. 8-11.) Because the Court finds that Plaintiff sufficiently alleges a basis for an easement by necessity, the demurrer is fully overruled.

The

demurrer is OVERRULED.

Defendants

are ordered to file an answer within 10 days.

Moving

party to give notice.

Parties

who intend to submit on this tentative must send an email to the Court at indicating intention to submit. If all parties in the case submit on the tentative ruling, no appearances before the Court are required unless a companion hearing (for example, a Case Management Conference) is also on calendar.
