TENTATIVE

RULING

Respondent

Karla Garduno Hernandez's Motion to Compel Further Deposition of Petitioner

Blue Hill Specialty Insurance Co.'s Authorized Agent is deemed MOOT.

Petitioner

Blue Hill Specialty Insurance Co.'s Motion for Protective Order is deemed MOOT.

BACKGROUND

This

is a petition from an insurance dispute.

On October 1, 2022, respondent Karla Garduno Hernandez (Garduno) allegedly rode in a motor vehicle as the passenger of nonparty Lionel Chavez (Chavez), driving on behalf of rideshare company nonparty Uber Technologies, Inc. (Uber). During the trip, the motor vehicle of nonparty Ricardo Ramos (Ramos) allegedly collided with that of Chavez, injuring Garduno. At the time of the collision, petitioner

Blue Hill Specialty Insurance Co. Inc. (Blue Hill) and nonparty Progressive

Insurance Co. (Progressive) allegedly had insurance policies afforded to cover

Garduno's injuries from the collision.

However, Blue Hill and Progressive allegedly failed to provide Garduno with the full benefits under the insurance contract(s).

On

June 16, 2025, Blue Hill filed the Petition for Assignment of File Number (case

no. 25PSCP00333) in this uninsured motorist action.

On

August 12, 2025, Garduno filed a Complaint in a bad faith action (case no.

25PSCV02929).

On

February 13, 2026, Blue Hill filed the motion for protective order. On March 26, 2026, Garduno filed the opposition, and on April 6, 2026, Blue Hill filed the reply.

On

February 26, 2026, the court held an informal discovery conference and permitted Garduno to file a motion to compel further deposition, but the court did not receive the motion. On March 30, 2026, Blue Hill filed the opposition, and on April 6, 2026, Garduno filed the reply.

On

April 29, 2026, the parties agreed to arbitrate the uninsured motorist claims.

This

case is set for a case management conference (further) and a continued hearing on the motions on June 23, 2026. (There is also a hearing on motions for reconsideration in the bad faith action set for hearing on the same date.)

motion seeks a further deposition of Blue Hill's claims adjustor, and Blue Hill's motion seeks to prevent the further deposition. The parties agreed to arbitrate the uninsured motorist claim, and the court will stay proceedings and discovery as it relates to the bad faith claims. Since the motion for further deposition and the motion for protective order deal with the bad faith claims, they are subject to the court's stay.

Therefore,

the court deems MOOT the motion to compel further deposition and the motion for protective order.

CONCLUSION

For

these reasons, the motion to compel further deposition is deemed MOOT, and the motion for protective order is deemed MOOT.
