Conservatorship of Larrick Lloyd McDowell

26PR00309

Appointment of Conservator

Tentative Ruling: NO APPEARANCES REQUIRED. The petition for conservatorship of the person and estate is DENIED. Having read the Statement of Issues filed by both parties, as well as the pleadings, the Court finds that a conservatorship is not the least restrictive alternative. In addition, no proof has been submitted indicating that the proposed conservatee lacks the capacity to make his own medical and financial decisions or resist undue influence or fraud; in fact, proof has been filed indicating that he does have capacity. Mr. McDowell had the foresight years ago to execute an estate plan, which has neither been amended nor revoked, and has the support of close family members and friends.

The case is DISMISSED with prejudice. Any future petition for conservatorship must be based on materially new or different facts.
