

CV-25-006991 VELEZ, PEDRO vs SILVA INJURY LAW - Plaintiff's Motion for Leave to File Corrected Second Amended Complaint - DENIED.

County: stanislaus

Division: Civil Law and Motion

Department: 23

Hearing date: 2012-04-02

Motion: As a preliminary matter, the Court notes that Plaintiff's pleadings, including the instant motion, consistently violate the requirements of Cal. Rules of Ct., rule 2.108 with regard to the formatting of papers submitted to the Court. Plaintiff is reminded that he is not entitled to special consideration based on his self-represented status and is responsible for following the rules of procedure in the same manner as an attorney practicing before this Court. (ViaView, Inc. v. Retzlaff (2016) 1 Cal.App.5th 198, 208.) In addition, while the Court notes that Plaintiff submitted his proposed "corrected" pleading to the Court as a separate document on 5-5-26, it is not clear whether such document was provided to defense counsel in advance of the instant hearing, as the proof of service contained therein does not meet the requirements of Code Civ. Proc. § 1013b. Lastly, with regard to the instant motion, the Court finds that the moving papers fail to meet the requirements of Cal. Rules of Ct., rule 3.1324, in that Plaintiff fails to identify by page, paragraph and line number any additions/deletions in the proposed amended pleading from the previous version of the complaint and fails to demonstrate why the amendment is necessary and proper, when the facts giving rise to the proposed amendment were discovered, and the reasons why the request was not made earlier.
