

#	Case Name	Tentative
50	D'Ambra vs. Ford Motor Company	Plaintiff Phillip D'Ambra moves to compel the deposition of Defendant Ford Motor Company's Person Most Knowledgeable(/Qualified). Based on the parties' correspondence regarding this deposition, it appears that 10/1/26 is a mutually agreeable date for the deposition at issue to occur. On 6/18/26, Defense counsel emailed stating its witness was available on 10/1/26 at 10:00 am. Plaintiff's counsel responded on 6/22/26, stating "Please either find a date within the next 30 days for the deposition to go forward or agree to stipulate to October 1, 2026, at 10 a.m." Defense counsel responded confirming this date. (Lara Decl., Ex. 4, 5 [emphasis added]; Chen Decl., ¶¶11, 14, Ex. A.) It is unclear what Plaintiff is requesting when he asks Defendant to "agree to stipulate." It is not Defendant's job to prepare a stipulation for a deposition that Plaintiff notices. If by "stipulate," Plaintiff means "agree," it seems like Defendant has done so in the email correspondence attached to the briefing. At this point, as Defendant invites Plaintiff to do, it is incumbent on Plaintiff to serve a notice for the 10/1/26 deposition. Notwithstanding this, the Court recognizes that Plaintiff has been seeking to take this deposition for quite some time, since it was first noticed on 9/23/25. (Lara Decl., ¶¶ 2, 3, Ex. 1.) Accordingly, Defendant is ordered to produce its PMK/PMQ in accordance with Plaintiff's deposition notice on or before 10/1/26.