Case Name: Moreno, et al. v. 99 Cents Only Stores, LLC, et al.

Case No.: 25CV478953

On October 29, 2025, plaintiffs Victor Duran Moreno and Susana Andrade Lozano (collectively, "Plaintiffs") filed a complaint against defendants 99 Cents Stores LLC, Tambro Properties, LLC and Tambro, Inc., asserting causes of action for general negligence and premises liability. Defendants Tambro Properties, LLC and Tambo, Inc. (collectively, "moving defendants") move to quash service of the summons and complaint on them.

Citing Code of Civil Procedure section 418.10, subdivision (a)(1), moving defendants argue that "[a] defendant may move to quash service of summons on the ground of lack of jurisdiction over that defendant... [and] Plaintiffs' attempted service on Defendants is ineffective to confer personal jurisdiction because Defendants have no involvement in the case and were improperly made the target of service." (Defs.' memorandum of points and authorities in support of motion to quash service of the summons and complaint ("Defs.' memo"), pp.3:13-28, 4:1-6.) Moving defendants do not understand the term "lack of jurisdiction" in the context of a
