County: stanislaus

Division: Family Law

Department: 11

Hearing date: 2026-08-17

Motion: Petitioner's Request for Order re Quash Subpoenas, etc.—DENIED. Petitioner failed to comply with the Civil Discovery Act and the Rules of Court for a motion to quash a deposition subpoena. (Code Civ. Proc., §§ 2016.040, 2025.420(a); Cal. Rules of Ct., rule 3.1345.) Petitioner has not filed and served a sufficient declaration in compliance with the meet and confer requirement and has not filed and served a compliant separate statement of disputed discovery. To the extent the motion is construed as seeking a protective order, Petitioner has failed to demonstrate good cause given the subpoenas at issue are within the scope of discovery and that Petitioner's conclusory privacy objections are not outweighed by the need for discovery and Petitioner's tender of the subjects on which discovery is sought as issues or claims in this action. Also, Petitioner has failed to demonstrate valid and timely service of this motion on all non-party deponents to which the subpoena's were directed, as required. (Cal. Rules of Ct., rule 3.1346.) The following are the tentative ruling cases calendared before Judge J. Richard Distaso in Department #13:
