1. AUDRA MARTINEZ V. RYAN MARTINEZ

26FL0735

This matter is before the court for hearing of the Request for Order (RFO) filed by the Petitioner on July 31, 2026, to award spousal support and child support for the parties' minor child, LM (age 11), and grant Petitioner temporary exclusive possession of the marital residence located at 1002 Tahoe Island Drive in South Lake Tahoe, California. Petitioner concurrently filed with her RFO the required Income and Expense Declaration (I&E).

On August 11, 2026, Petitioner filed a Notice and Acknowledgement of Receipt, wherein Respondent's attorney acknowledged receipt of the RFO and the court's notice of tentative ruling system. The signed acknowledgment does not indicate, however, that Respondent received a copy of Petitioner's I&E.

On August 25, 2026, the parties submitted a stipulation continuing the hearing on the instant RFO from September 09, 2026, to September 16, 2026.

On August 26, 2026, the parties stipulated to sharing joint temporary legal custody of LM; Petitioner will have temporary physical custody of LM and Respondent shall have parenting time every other weekend from Friday at 5:00 p.m. until Sunday at 5:00 p.m. The parties further stipulated that Petitioner shall have temporary exclusive possession of the marital residence.

On September 01, 2026, Respondent filed his I&E. On September 02, 2026, Respondent filed a Responsive Declaration to Petitioner's RFO. To date, however, there is no proof of service for these submissions in the court's file.

Also on September 01, 2026, Petitioner filed a Supplemental Declaration, a copy of which was electronically served upon Respondent that same day per the proof of service, also filed September 01, 2026.

Based upon the parties' stipulation, the portion of the RFO concerning the marital residence is denied as moot. For purposes of calculating child support, the court finds that the Respondent's custody timeshare is 14 percent.

Petitioner's gross monthly income is currently $3,249 (rounded down from $3,249.45 to the nearest dollar amount). Petitioner's I&E does not indicate the number of exemptions she claims on her taxes (see, I&E, filed Jul. 31, 2026, ¶ 3(d)), so it is unclear whether, in addition to LM, Petitioner claims an exemption for her 19-year old child. In the absence of such showing, the court will calculate the support amounts under the assumption that Petitioner does not claim an exemption for her 19-year old child. Petitioner is entitled to a $111 deduction (rounded up from $110.60 to the nearest dollar amount) for medical expenses. Because Petitioner has temporary exclusive possession of the marital residence, the court finds that Petitioner is also entitled to a $274 deduction (rounded up from $273.82 to the nearest dollar amount) for property tax expenses and a $1,174 deduction (rounded up from $1,173.51 to the nearest dollar amount) for interest on the mortgage.

Respondent's gross monthly income (non-taxable) is $7,256 (rounded up from $7,255.94 to the nearest dollar amount), comprised of $2,467 in Social Security Disability benefits and $4,788.94 in VA compensation. Respondent is entitled to a $110 deduction for medical expenses.

As shown in the attached XSpouse calculation printout, Respondent is ordered to pay Child Support to the Petitioner in the amount of $1,607.00 and Spousal Support to the Petitioner in the amount of $914.00 beginning August 01, 2026, and the first of each month thereafter until further order of the court.

The court sets the matter for further review on December 30, 2026, to be heard concurrently with the hearing on Respondent's RFO filed September 02, 2026. The parties shall file supplemental declarations and updated I&Es no later than December 18, 2026, for the court's consideration. The court specifically directs Petitioner to update the court on the status of her salary from the VA as care giver for Respondent.

TENTATIVE RULING #1: THE RFO IS GRANTED IN PART AND DENIED IN PART. TO THE EXTENT THE RFO REQUESTS TEMPORARY EXCLUSIVE POSSESSION OF THE MARITAL RESIDENCE, THE COURT DENIES THE REQUEST AS MOOT. RESPONDENT IS ORDERED TO PAY CHILD SUPPORT TO THE PETITIONER IN THE AMOUNT OF $1,607.00 AND SPOUSAL SUPPORT TO THE PETITIONER IN THE AMOUNT OF $914.00 BEGINNING AUGUST 01, 2026, AND THE FIRST OF EACH MONTH THEREAFTER UNTIL FURTHER ORDER OF THE COURT. THE COURT SETS A FURTHER REVIEW HEARING ON THE ISSUE OF CHILD SUPPORT AND SPOUSAL SUPPORT FOR 8:30 A.M., WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 30, 2026, IN DEPARTMENT 12 TO BE HEARD CONCURRENTLY WITH THE HEARING ON RESPONDENT'S RFO FILED SEPTEMBER 02, 2026. THE PARTIES SHALL FILE AND SERVE SUPPLEMENTAL DECLARATIONS AND UPDATED INCOME AND EXPENSE DECLARATIONS NO LATER THAN DECEMBER 18, 2026. THE COURT SPECIFICALLY DIRECTS PETITIONER TO UPDATE THE COURT ON THE STATUS OF HER SALARY FROM THE VA AS CARE GIVER FOR RESPONDENT.

NO HEARING ON THIS MATTER WILL BE HELD UNLESS A REQUEST FOR ORAL ARGUMENT IS TRANSMITTED ELECTRONICALLY THROUGH THE COURT'S WEBSITE OR BY PHONE CALL TO THE COURT AT (530) 573-3042 BY 4:00 P.M. ON THE DAY THE TENTATIVE RULING IS ISSUED. CAL.RULE CT. 3.1308; LOCAL RULE 8.05.07; SEE ALSO LEWIS V. SUPERIOR COURT, 19 CAL.4TH 1232 (1999). 2. STEPHAN HAASE V. TAYLOR BROOKE MYATT

This matter is before the court for hearing of the Request for Order (RFO) filed by the Petitioner on June 30, 2026, seeking need-based attorney fees ($85,000) and expert witness fees ($50,000). Petitioner concurrently filed with his RFO a current Income and Expense Declaration (I&E). Proof of service, also filed June 30, 2026, shows the RFO and I&E were both electronically served upon Respondent that same day.

On July 08, 2026, the parties stipulated to continue the instant hearing from August 12, 2026, to September 16, 2026.

On September 02, 2026, Respondent filed a Responsive Declaration, wherein Respondent requests the court to grant her October 01, 2025, request for Family Code section 271 (“Section 271”)¹ sanctions against the Petitioner in the amount of $25,000.² Respondent concurrently filed a supporting memorandum of points and authorities and current I&E. Proof of service, also filed September 02, 2026, shows that each of Respondent’s aforementioned filings were electronically served upon Petitioner that same day.

On September 09, 2026, Petitioner filed a Responsive Declaration to Respondent’s request for Section 271 sanctions, a copy of which was electronically served upon Petitioner that same day per the proof of service attached to said declaration. Petitioner also filed a reply brief in support of his RFO; to date, however, there is no proof of service for the reply brief in the court’s file. Petitioner’s reply brief requests his own Section 271 sanctions against Respondent. (Reply at 6:12–13.) However, a request for Section 271 sanctions may not be raised for the first time in a reply brief. Additionally, without proof of service for the reply brief, the court does not consider the reply brief at all.

On September 11, 2026, Respondent filed an objection and request to strike Petitioner’s Reply Declaration on the ground that Respondent filed an oversized declaration without leave of court. On September 14, 2026, Petitioner filed an opposition to Respondent’s request to strike. As previously mentioned, there is no proof of service for Petitioner’s Reply Declaration. For that reason, the court does not consider it. Therefore, the court need not consider Respondent’s objection and request to strike, or Petitioner’s related opposition.

² On February 10, 2026, Respondent filed a stipulation wherein the parties agreed that, if Petitioner “seeks attorney’s fees before the trial date,” then Respondent’s October 01, 2025, “request for Family Code Section 271 sanctions will be heard at that same time.” (Resp. Decl., filed Sep. 02, 2026, Ex. A at ¶ 14.)
