ORDER RE: PLAINTIFFS MOTIONS TO COMPEL FURTHER RESPONSES FROM DEFENDANT ZHANG YANYAN

On April 13, 2026, plaintiff Jie Liu
("Plaintiff") filed five motions for orders compelling defendant Zhang Yanyan ("Defendant") to provide further responses to Requests for Production of Documents, Set One, Special Interrogatories, Set One, Requests for Admission, Set One, Form Interrogatories – General, Set One, and Form Interrogatories – Employment Law, Set One. The motions were originally scheduled to be heard on August 6, August 26, August 27, August 28, and September 16, 2026.

On August 6, 2026, Plaintiff's motion regarding responses to her special interrogatories came on for hearing. The Court granted the motion and ordered Defendant to provide further responses but denied Plaintiff's request for sanctions because the notice of motion failed to identify the party, person, or attorney against whom the monetary sanctions were sought. (See Code Civ. Proc., § 2023.040.)

On August 25, 2026, Plaintiff filed amended notices of motion for the four pending motions to specify that monetary sanctions were sought against Defendant.

On August 26, 2026, the Court continued the hearings on the remaining four motions to September 16, 2026, and ordered Plaintiff's counsel to have a telephonic or personal oral meet and confer with Defendant and to file a declaration no later than 5 days before the next hearing. The Court also ordered Plaintiff's counsel to give notice of the new hearing date.

On September 11, 2026, Plaintiff's counsel filed a declaration stating that she has made multiple good-faith efforts to meet and confer with Defendant and described written correspondence exchanged between March 30 and April 13, 2026. In Plaintiff's initial meet and confer letter, dated March 30, 2026, Plaintiff's counsel proposed a telephonic meet and confer to discuss the identified issues with Defendant's initial and supplemental responses. Another request to meet and confer over the phone was made on April 8, 2026, in response to an email sent by David Yao, Esq. who stated he would be "actively assisting" Defendant with her defense due to their friendship, but would not be counsel of record.

It does not appear that Plaintiff's counsel abided by the Court's order because Plaintiff's counsel's declaration does not include any description of recent attempts to contact Defendant and schedule a meet and confer in person or by telephone. Also, no notice of the continued hearing date was filed. Accordingly, the hearings on ____ motions are CONTINUED to ____.

The Court observes that when Defendant first interacted with Plaintiff's counsel around November 2025, Defendant stated that she "prefer[red] all communication be conducted in writing, either by email or text message" and that she was "not able to participate in a phone call." (Ahn Decl., Ex. 9.) Therefore, Plaintiff's counsel and Defendant are ORDERED to meet and confer in person or over the telephone and file a joint statement identifying the date it took place, how long it lasted, and whether the discussion resolved any of the issues raised in Plaintiff's pending motions. The declaration shall be filed no later than 5 days before the hearing. Failure to obey this order without good cause may result in the imposition of sanctions.

Plaintiff to give notice.

Parties who intend to submit on this tentative must send an email to the Court at ALHDEPT3@lacourt.org indicating intention to submit on the tentative as directed by the instructions provided on the court website at www.lacourt.org. Please be advised that if you submit on the tentative and elect not to appear at the hearing, the opposing party may nevertheless appear at the hearing and argue the matter. Unless you receive a submission from all other parties in the matter, you should assume that others might appear at the hearing to argue. If the Court does not receive emails from the parties indicating submission on this tentative ruling and there are no appearances at the hearing, the Court may, at its discretion, adopt the tentative as the final order or place the motion off calendar.
