Burnett v. Vis a Vis Home Medical Group of NY PLCC

24STCV14122

Motion of Plaintiff's Counsel to be Relieved

Tentative Ruling

The motion is denied without prejudice.

A counsel seeking an order to be relieved must submit to the Court and serve a motion, a declaration, and a proposed order. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.1362.)

The proposed order submitted by moving counsel is entirely blank. That is not sufficient to comply with the requirements of the rules.

Accordingly, the motion is denied without prejudice.

Moving counsel is ordered to give notice.
