

and the credibility of counsel's declaration, unsubstantiated by time records and billing statements. (See Weber v. Langholz (1995) 39 Cal.App.4th 1578, 1587; see also Bernardi v. County of Monterey (2008) 167 Cal.App.4th 1379, 1394.)

In determining the reasonable amount of attorney fees, the court first determines a lodestar figure (time reasonably spent by each biller multiplied by an hourly rate that is reasonable for each biller). (Serrant v. Priest (1977) 20 Cal.3d 25, 48.) In exercising its discretion, the Court may consider all of the facts and the entire procedural history of the case in setting the amount of a reasonable attorney fee award. (Bernardi, supra, 167 Cal.App.4th 1379, 1394; see also PLCM Group v. Drexler (2000) 22 Cal.4th 1084, 1096 (factors considered in determining the reasonableness of a party's attorney fees include the nature of the litigation, its difficulty, the amount involved, the skill required in its handling, the skill employed, the attention given and the success or failure).)

Here, Meadows seeks a total of $14,596.57 in fees and costs, with an hourly rate of $275/ hour. Meadows' attorney, Mr. Lockwood, provides the invoices for each month and the amounts represent the actual amounts paid, with the exception of one pre-bill yet to be sent and some unbilled work related to this motion. (See Declaration of Christopher Lockwood, ¶¶ 3-8, Exhibits 1 and 2.) The hourly rate is reasonable. The billing entries themselves appear reasonable and commensurate with the tasks performed, as do the costs. Plaintiff makes no argument challenging the reasonableness of the fees sought. The Court GRANTS the motion and awards the full $14,596.57 in fees and costs.
