Case Number: 26STCV04536 Hearing Date: July 30, 2026 Dept: 517

Defendants' demurrer to the claims for violation of the Los Angeles Tenant Anti-Harassment Ordinance and Business and Professions Code Section 17200 in Plaintiff's Complaint are overruled. Defendants' demurrer to the remaining six claims in the Complaint is sustained with leave to amend. In reaching these conclusions, the Court considered and is sustaining the Defendants' objections to the declaration of the Plaintiff that he submitted in support of his opposition to the demurrer. At the hearing today, the Court can provide a more detailed explanation for its rulings on each aspect of the demurrer.

Defendants' motion to strike is granted with leave to amend to the extent that it targets requests in the Complaint for an award of punitive damages on all claims, except the claim for violation of the Los Angeles Tenant Anti-Harassment Ordinance -- the allegations in the Complaint are sufficient to support an award of punitive damages on that claim. The motion to strike is also granted as to the prayer in the Complaint for an award of attorney's fees. Plaintiff is self-represented. Therefore, he cannot recover attorney's fees. If Plaintiff retains counsel, he may renew his request for attorney's fees.
