Tentative Ruling

Delgado v. Bixel Residences, Case
no. 24STCV00343

Hearing date August 3, 2026

Plaintiffs'

Motion to Compel Non-Party Compliance – UNOPPOSED

Plaintiffs

J. and C. Delgado sue defendants Bixel Residences, LLC and L and R Auto Parks, Inc. for negligence and premises liability arising from a trip-and-fall.

Plaintiffs move to compel compliance with a deposition subpoena for production of business records as against non-party Career Lofts-LA, LLC. The motion is unopposed.

The

Civil Discovery Act authorizes discovery from a nonparty through a deposition subpoena. Personal service of a deposition subpoena on an organization through an authorized agent is effective to require the specified production. See Code Civ. Proc. §2020.220(b)(2), (c)(2).

Plaintiffs

served a deposition subpoena for production of business records on Career Lofts-LA on 3/31/26. Decl. Azizi, para. 4, exhs. A-B. Career Lofts-LA failed to respond. Id. at para. 5. Career-Lofts-LA failed to respond to subsequent meet-and-confer correspondence, which stated plaintiffs would file a instant motion if production did not occur. Id. at paras. 6-7. The motion is unopposed. An order compelling production is warranted. GRANTED; code-compliant production to be served within 30 days. No sanctions are sought.
