6.	30-2023-01350570 Loan Servicer LLC vs. Harmony Escrow, Inc	1. Motion for Leave to File Amended Cross-Complaint 2. Status Conference re: Settlement Defendant/cross-complainant Harmony Escrow, Inc. (“Defendant”) moves for an order granting it leave to amend its Cross-Complaint and Answer to the First Amended Complaint, and deeming the proposed pleadings filed as of the date of the granting of this Motion. “The court may, in furtherance of justice, and on any terms as may be proper, allow a party to amend any pleading.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 473(a)(1).) “If the motion to amend is timely made and the granting of the motion will not prejudice the opposing party, it is error to refuse permission to amend and where the refusal also results in a party being deprived of the right to assert a meritorious cause of action or a meritorious defense, it is not only error but an abuse of discretion.” (Morgan v. Superior Court (1959) 172 Cal.App.2d 527, 530.) Here, Defendant’s proposed amendments do not add any new parties or theories of liability to this litigation. Defendant learned about the facts giving rise to the amendments in early 2025 but did not
