Taquan-Rahshe :Gullett-El v. Yang et al.

Plaintiff's Motion to Enter Default against

Defendant T. Blasi

BACKGROUND

On November 26, 2024, Plaintiff

:Taquan-Rahshe :Gullett-El (Plaintiff) filed a complaint against defendants

Scott Andrew Yang, David W. Slayton, George Gascon, Nathan Hochman and T. Blasi

alleging 30 causes of action. On April 29, 2025, the Court sustained Defendants Yang and Slayton's demurrer to the complaint without leave to amend.

On August 8, 2025, Plaintiff filed a "Verified Bill of First Amended Complaint in Equity," asserting causes of action for (1) breach of mandatory duty; (2) breach of trust; (3) breach of fiduciary duty; and (4) specific performance. On July 14, 2026, the Court sustained Defendants Gascon and Hochman's demurrer to the first amended complaint without leave to amend.

DISCUSSION

Plaintiff moves for an order entering default against Defendant T. Blasi. Plaintiff asserts that Defendant was served via personal service on December 10, 2024. The Clerk's Office has rejected requests for entry of default on the ground that the proof of service is not compliant.

The proof of service states that "Juan Jarrett Management Services Technician" was served with the complaint on behalf of Blasi in section 3(b) of the form but also states that Blasi was personally served in section 5(a) of the form. It is thus unclear from the proof of service whether Blasi was served via personal or substitute service and unclear whether either type of service was properly performed.

CONCLUSION

The Court denies Plaintiff's motion to enter default against Defendant Blasi.

Plaintiff to give notice.

////////////////////////////////

Taquan-Rahshe :Gullett-El v. Yang et al.

(1) Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Further Responses to Requests for Production of Documents from Defendants Gascon, Hochman, Yang and Slayton;

(2) Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Further Responses to Initial Disclosures from Defendants Gascon, Hochman, Yang and Slayton;

(3) Plaintiff's Motion to Deem Requests for Admissions Admitted Against Defendants

Gascon, Hochman, Yang and Slayton

Plaintiff moves to compel further responses to RPDs and initial disclosures from and to deem RFAs admitted against Defendants Gascon, Hochman, Yang and Slayton. On April 29, 2025, the Court sustained Defendants Yang and Slayton's demurrer to the complaint without leave to amend. On July 14, 2026, the Court sustained Defendants Gascon and Hochman's demurrer to the first amended complaint without leave to amend. As all of Defendants' demurrers have been sustained without leave to amend, the instant discovery motions filed against them are off calendar.
