II.
Legal Standard

Code
of Civil Procedure section 284 states that “the attorney in an action...may be changed at any time before or after judgment or final determination, as follows: (1) Upon the consent of both client and attorney...; (2) Upon the order of the court, upon the application of either client or attorney, after notice from one to the other.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 284; Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.1362.) “The determination whether to grant or deny a motion to withdraw as counsel lies within the sound discretion of the trial court.” (Manfredi & Levine v. Superior Court (1998) 66 Cal.App.4th 1128, 1133); see Lempert v. Superior Court (2003) 112 Cal.App.4th 1161, 1173.)

An application to be relieved as counsel must be made on Judicial Counsel Forms MC-051 (Notice of Motion and Motion), MC-052 (Declaration), and MC-053 (Proposed Order). (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.1362, subds. (a), (c), (e).)

In addition,
California Rules of Court, rule 3.1362 subsection (d) requires that the notice of motion and motion, declaration, and proposed order be served on the client and all other parties who have appeared in the case by personal service, electronic service, or mail. If the notice is served by electronic service, it must be accompanied by a declaration stating that the electronic service address is the client’s current electronic service address. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.1362, subd. (d)(2).) As used in this rule, “current” means:

“[T]he address was confirmed within 30 days before the filing of the motion to be relieved.

Merely demonstrating that the notice was sent to the client’s last known address and was not returned or no electronic delivery failure message was received is not,

by itself, sufficient to demonstrate that the address is current.”

(Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.1362, subd. (d).)

III.

Discussion

On June 22, 2026, Counsel moved the Court to be relieved as attorney of record for Amusement Foods. (MC-051.) Counsel filed MC-051, MC-052, and MC-053 Forms. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.1362, subds. (a), (c), (e).)

Counsel seeks to be relieved on the following grounds:

Complete breakdown of communication between moving counsel and client. Last telephonic and text exchanges with client’s sole owner and owner’s third-party financial advisor concerning issues in this case were on November 27, 2025, at which point moving counsel was informed that new counsel would be substituting into this case, but no substitution of attorney form has been circulated, served, or filed. Client has not responded to requests to meet concerning this (and other) cases. Client has not paid outstanding invoices. Client’s owner and financial advisor have not responded to moving counsel’s inquiries regarding discovery since November, 2025. Client apparently has engaged other counsel to ‘speak’ for it in dealing with plaintiff’s counsel (without substituting into the case in place of moving counsel.

(MC-052, ¶ 2.)

The Court is satisfied with Counsel’s reasons for seeking to be relieved. (Cal. Rules of Professional Conduct, rule 1.16.) The Court also finds the Motion satisfactorily complies with California Rules of Court, rule 3.1362.

Accordingly, Counsel’s Motion is GRANTED.

IV.
