

		The Court notes the notice and moving papers, as well as the discovery at issue, were served by mail and email on Plaintiff. Pursuant to CRC Rule 2.251(c)(3)(B), Plaintiff is self-represented and is “to be served by non-electronic methods unless [Plaintiff] affirmatively consent[s] to electronic service.” There is no showing Plaintiff affirmatively consented to electronic service. The Court reminds the parties that litigants who choose to represent themselves must be treated in the same manner as represented parties and must follow the correct rules of procedure. (Rappleyea v. Campbell (1994) 8 Cal.4th 975, 984-985; Nwosu v. Uba (2004) 122 Cal.App.4th 1229, 1246-1247.) A self-represented litigant is not entitled to any greater consideration than other litigants and attorneys. (Petrosyan v. Prince Corp. (2013) 223 Cal.App.4th 587, 594 [self-represented litigants are entitled to same treatment as represented parties]; see Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 1.6(15) [defines “parties” as including both self-represented persons and persons represented by an attorney of record without making any distinction between them].) The fact that Plaintiff is a self-represented litigant does not relieve him of the requirements, law, and procedures applied to all parties who appear in this court. Self-represented litigants are “held to the same standards as attorneys.” (Kobayashi v. Superior Court (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 536, 543.) Defendant shall give notice.
61	Viveros v. Aaron Transport, Inc.	Defendant Aaron Stogden Garcia dba Aaron’s Transport’s unopposed motion to compel the inspection of Plaintiff Oswaldo Viveros' vehicle is GRANTED.

Code Civ. Proc., § 2031.010(a) provides that “[a]ny party may obtain discovery ... by inspecting, copying, testing, or sampling documents, tangible things, land or other property, and electronically stored information in the possession, custody, or control of any other party to the action.” (Emphasis added.)

Code Civ. Proc., § 2031.310 states in relevant part that a party may move to compel a further response to its inspection demand if “[a]n objection in the response is without merit or too general.” The motion “shall “set forth specific facts showing good cause justifying the discovery,” and shall be “accompanied by a meet and confer declaration.” (Id.)

Defendant seeks to compel inspection of Plaintiff's vehicle. Plaintiff served objections to Defendant's 1/12/26 Demand. The parties met and conferred without success. (Sullivan Decl., ¶¶ 3-6.)

The Court finds that Defendant has shown good cause to compel the inspection including obtaining information from the vehicle's electronic data recorder.

There is no opposition.

Thus, the motion is GRANTED.

Defendant requests sanctions in the amount of $2,460.00, but does not provide the Court with any facts supporting this amount pursuant to Code Civ. Proc., § 2023.040. Therefore, Defendant’s request for sanctions is DENIED. Defendant shall give notice.

62	Yahayakshani vs. Roseman Law, APC	Defendant Roseman Law, APC’s (“Defendant”) Demurrer to Plaintiffs Saied Yahakshani and Vered Corsandi’s (“Plaintiffs”) Complaint is sustained with leave to amend. Procedural Issues Defendant’s request for judicial notice (ROA 28) is granted. (Evid. Code, § 452, subd. (d).) However, judicial notice of court records is limited to “the existence of judicial opinions and court documents, along with the truth of the results reached—in the documents such as orders, statements of decision, and judgments[.]” (Williams v. Wraxall (1995) 33 Cal.App.4th 120, 130, fn. 7.) Merits Defendant generally demurs to Plaintiffs’ complaint for professional negligence on, among other grounds, that the claim is barred by the statute of limitations. Defendant contends that Plaintiffs “were on inquiry notice of the pending dismissal [of the underlying LASC case] as early as April 2023.” (Dem. at p. 3.) CCP section 340.6 provides: “An action against an attorney for a wrongful act or omission, other than for actual fraud, arising in the performance of professional services shall be commenced within one year after the plaintiff discovers, or through the use of reasonable diligence should have discovered, the facts constituting the wrongful act or omission, or four years from the
