Tentative: Motions in limine

Plaintiff filed boilerplate motions without any support asking the court to bar inadmissible testimony or testimony for which there is no foundation. The court cannot decide these motions in a vacuum. If there are specific opinions which are sought to be excluded, the specific opinion and the reason for exclusion should be stated. Otherwise, these motions cannot be decided with the lack of specificity. The expert designations are not included. The experts' resumes are not included. Motions should be made to specific questions at the time of trial. MILs #1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 7 are denied on those grounds and are reserved for trial objections.

MIL #6 is granted and applies to ALL COUNSEL, ALL PARTIES, AND ALL WITNESSES. Counsel are responsible for assuring their clients and their witnesses abide by the court's ruling. Any reference to settlement negotiations, mediation communications, compromise discussions, statutory settlement offers, insurance claims handling, claim valuation, demands, offers, or negotiations are EXCLUDED.
