

		Defendants have failed to specify exactly what they want stricken from the complaint, as required under subdivision (a) of CRC 3.1322. That subdivision states: A notice of motion to strike a portion of a pleading must quote in full the portions sought to be stricken except where the motion is to strike an entire paragraph, cause of action, count, or defense. Specifications in a notice must be numbered consecutively. The Court cannot grant the relief requested because it does not know specifically what defendants want it to strike. Furthermore, plaintiffs filed a first amended complaint on October 2, 2025, which means that it is the operative pleading in the action and that the (initial) complaint has been superseded. Thus, to the extent that defendants are seeking to strike portions of the complaint – as opposed to the first amended complaint – as stated in the notice of motion, the motion is moot.
