BANK OF AMERICA, N.A. vs. DECONTEE T. DOE
Case No. CL24-06579

Plaintiff's Motion to Vacate Dismissal and Enter Judgment Under Terms of the Stipulated Settlement

TENTATIVE RULING

Reflecting due process concerns, service of a motion affecting the rights of a defendant who has not appeared in an action typically is required to be made in the same manner as required for service of summons and complaint. See, e.g., applications for writs of attachment [C.C.P. §482.070(d)], and applications for writs of possession [C.C.P. §512.030(b)].

Defendant filed no responsive pleading in this action.

The only proof of service filed here for the motion papers shows service by mail, on Defendant, at an address at which personal service of summons and complaint had been completed over a year earlier. The Notice of Intention to Request Entry of Judgment was also served by mail, approximately eleven months after personal service of the summons and complaint. No evidence was provided to explain how this could constitute proper service on a defendant who has never appeared in this action.

The motion is denied without prejudice.
