Defendant Nowhere Studio City, LLC

("Defendant") moves for an order compelling further responses to Special Interrogatories, Set Two, Nos. 61-66 and 72-74 from plaintiff Mary Caroline Cruz ("Plaintiff"). Defendant also requests the Court impose sanctions in the amount of $1,940 against Plaintiff and her counsel.

On a motion to compel further responses, the objecting party has the burden of justifying its objections and showing why a further response is not needed. (Coy v. Superior Court (1962) 58 Cal.2d 210; Williams v. Superior Court (2017) 3 Cal.5th 531, 541.)

By not responding to Defendant's motion, Plaintiff failed to substantiate her objections and show why a further response is not needed. Accordingly, Defendant's motion is GRANTED and Plaintiff is ordered to serve further, verified responses without objections to Special Interrogatories, Set Two, Nos. 61 through 66 and 72 through 74 within 14 days of the date of this order. Defendant's response for sanctions is also GRANTED albeit in the reduced amount of $765, consisting of 3 hours at defense counsel's hourly rate of $235 and a $60 filing fee, payable within 14 days of the date of this order.

Parties who intend to submit on this tentative must send an email to the Court at indicating intention to submit on the tentative as directed by the instructions provided on the court website at www.lacourt.org. Please be advised that if you submit on the tentative and elect not to appear at the hearing, the opposing party may nevertheless appear at the hearing and argue the matter. Unless you receive a submission from all other parties in the matter, you should assume that others might appear at the hearing to argue. If the Court does not receive emails from the parties indicating submission on this tentative ruling and there are no appearances at the hearing, the Court may, at its discretion, adopt the tentative as the final order or place the motion off calendar.
