OTHER REVIEW HEARING

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) Ajax Collado (Father) and Jennyfer Murcia Madrid (Mother) have one minor child, Kiara (DOB 3/24/2009, age 17). On 3/25/2026, Father filed a request for sole legal and physical custody and a Tier II interview of the child. Mother opposes the request and seeks sole legal and physical custody with weekend parenting time for Father.
- 2) On 6/24/2026, the Court issued a tentative ruling ordering the parties to contact Family Court Services immediately (on or before 6/26/2026) to schedule an in-person Tier II interview of Kiara and continuing the matter to 7/28/2026 at 9AM in Department 404 to give sufficient time for the interview to occur. Neither party objected to the tentative ruling or appeared at the hearing, and the tentative ruling was adopted as the Court's order.
- 3) Family Court Services conducted Kiara's Tier II interview on 7/20/2026. Kiara expressed clearly that she is doing well in Father's home and wishes to stay there and visit Mother for up to 4 hours a week, with the option of ending the visits early if she is not comfortable. She states she was very close to Mother but has grown apart and feels "pushed aside" since Mother entered a new relationship. She hopes to spend one-on-one time with Mother and would like her to stop saying negative things about Father and his family.

B. Findings and Order

- 1) This Court has jurisdiction to make child custody orders in this case under the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act. A violation of this order may subject the party in violation to civil or criminal penalties, or both. The country of habitual residence of the minor child is the United States.
- 2) The Court finds it is in Kiara's best interest to have the parties share legal custody and for Father to have temporary physical custody, with parenting time for Mother for up to 4 hours per week, as arranged for directly by Mother and Kiara. If necessary, Mother and Father shall coordinate to ensure the visits happen. If Kiara wishes to see Mother for longer periods of time, this shall be permitted, subject to Mother and Kiara's availability. Mother shall ensure that she is able to spend one-on-one time with Kiara during these visits.
- 3) Neither party shall speak negatively about the other party or the other party's family members to, or in front of, Kiara.
- 4) The Court will prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.

REQUEST FOR ORDER: REQUEST FOR APPEARANCE AND EXAMINATION OF JUDGMENT
DEBTOR

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) The parties are Petitioner Roman Marcel Valdez (Father) and Respondent Erin Nicole Wielenga (Mother). The parties have one minor child, Emilia (DOB: 5/19/2019). Father is self-represented. Mother is represented by attorney Adrea Tencer.
- 2) On 1/27/2021, a 2-year Domestic Violence Restraining Order After Hearing was issued against Father for the protection of Mother.
- 3) On 3/20/2023, the Court granted Mother's request to renew the DVRO, and issued a permanent restraining order for Mother.
- 4) On 5/6/2025, per the Findings and Order After Hearing filed 5/9/2025, the Honorable Judge Costin found that Father owes to Mother $22,136.41 in unpaid attorney's fees and interest. Judge Costin ordered the parties to meet and confer and work in good faith to attempt to establish an incremental payment plan that Father can reasonably afford. Judge Costin also noted that interest

1 would continue to accrue at the legal rate of 10% per annum on the unpaid balance until the total
2 balance was paid in full.

3 5) On 5/9/2025, a Judgment was entered with the finding that Father owes Mother $22,136.41.

4 6) On 6/17/2025 in related Case No. FCS-22-355518, Judge Pro Tem Harding ordered Father to pay
5 Mother $175 per month in guideline child support (based on Mother's earning $9,082 and 6 Father's earning $7,716 in monthly taxable gross income, and Father having a 21% timeshare
7 with Emilia). At that hearing, Mother also agreed to accept $2,000 in satisfaction of $7,845.89 in 8 child support arrears owed by Father.

9 7) Now on for hearing is Mother's Request for Order filed 5/20/2026. Attached to Mother's Request
10 for Order is an Application and Order for Appearance and Examination of Judgment Debtor (EJ-11 125). Also attached to Mother's Request for Order is an Order to Produce Statement of Assets
12 and to Appear for Examination (SC-134). The Court notes the EJ-125 and SC-134 have places for 13 a judge to sign, but a judge has not yet signed these forms.

14 8) Per the Proof of Electronic Service filed 7/16/2026, Mother's Request for Order and the 15 attachments were emailed to Father on 7/1/2026.

16 9) Father did not file a Responsive Declaration.

17 B. Findings and Order

18 1) Mother's Application and Order for Appearance and Examination of Judgment Debtor (EJ-125)
19 and Request for an Order to Produce Statement of Assets and to Appear for Examination (SC-20 134) are hereby granted. The Court will execute the EJ-125 and SC-134 and return these 21 documents to Mother's attorney.

22 2) The date for the examination is set for Thursday, 10/15/2026 at 9:00 AM in Dept. 404.

23 3) Mother's attorney shall prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.

24 4) Preparation of Order: If you are directed by the court to prepare the order after hearing – within
25 10 calendar days of the hearing you must either: (a) Serve the proposed order to the other
26 party/counsel for approval, and follow the procedures set forth in CA Rules of Court, Rule
27 5.125(c), or (b) If the other party did not appear or the matter was uncontested, submit the 28 proposed order after hearing directly to the court. Failure to submit the order after hearing within 29

1 10 days may allow the other party to prepare a proposed order and submit it to the court in
2 accordance with CA Rules of Court, Rule 5.125(d).

REQUEST FOR ORDER FOR CHANGE OF CHANGE OF VISITATION (PARENTING TIME), CHILD SUPPORT, MISCELLANEOUS ORDERS RELATED TO MINOR CHILD

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) Owen Serra (Father) and Cindy Kanegai (Mother) have one minor child together, Esme (DOB 7/6/2020, age 6). On 12/29/2021, this Court issued a one-year Domestic Violence Restraining Order against Father protecting Mother. In an order filed 2/8/2023, the Court found Father had overcome the presumption against joint custody (Fam. Code, § 3044) and ordered joint legal and physical custody with a step-up (to a 2-2-3) parenting time schedule for Father.
- 2) After a child custody evaluation, the parties entered into a Stipulation and Order filed 1/17/2024 in which they agreed that Mother would move to the LaMorinda area with Esme and that the parties will share joint legal and physical custody of Esme with a 60/40 (Mother/Father) parenting time schedule. The parties agreed, and the Court ordered, that the custody arrangement shall be a final custody agreement pursuant to Montenegro v. Diaz (2001) 26 Cal.4th 249.
- 3) On 10/14/2024, the parties stipulated to the appointment of parenting coordinator David Donner.

- 1 4) In an order filed 4/6/2025, this Court ordered that Mother may enroll Esme in therapy with 2 Adriana Taranta and further ordered: “The therapist’s work with Esme will be privileged: this 3 therapy is intended to assist Esme and shall not be used by either party for the purposes of 4 attempting to influence the present custody proceedings. The therapist shall be permitted (but is 5 not required to) speak to the Parties’ Parenting Coordinator . . . and the Parenting Coordinator can 6 then consider those updates in issuing recommendations to the Court. . . .” “The therapist shall 7 determine what, if any, information regarding Esme’s sessions to share directly with the parents.
8 Both parents shall have the right to communicate . . . with any therapist who is providing services
9 to Esme, and they need not copy the other parent on any such communications. Both parents may 10 obtain records regarding Esme’s attendance at therapy (i.e., how often she attends, when sessions 11 occur, and the costs of those sessions). All other records shall be privileged and shall not be 12 disclosed to the parents or the Court unless the therapist deems disclosure of such information to 13 be necessary and in Esme’s best interest.”
- 14 5) On for hearing is Father’s request filed 3/2/2026 in which he seeks 50/50 parenting time. Mother
15 opposes the request on the merits and also asks the Court to receive input from the child’s 16 therapist (who has asked to provide information to the Court) before issuing a decision on 17 Father’s request. Mother has also filed a request for clarification of the 4/6/2025 order regarding 18 the therapist’s ability to provide information to the Court. This request is set for hearing on 19 9/3/2026 at 9AM in Department 404.
- 20 6) On 7/22/2026, Mother filed an ex parte request seeking to have Father’s request continued to 21 9/3/2026 (to be heard with Mother’s request), which this Court denied.

22 B. Findings and Orders

- 23 1) This Court has jurisdiction to make child custody orders in this case under the Uniform Child
24 Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act. A violation of this order may subject the party in
25 violation to civil or criminal penalties, or both. The country of habitual residence of the minor
26 child is the United States.
- 27 2) The Court finds it is in Esme’s best interest for the Court to receive information from Esme’s 28 therapist before issuing a ruling on Father’s request for a change in his parenting time. This 29 matter is therefore continued to 9/3/2026 at 9AM in Department 404 to permit Esme’s therapist

1 to lodge (not file) and serve on both parties a declaration no longer than 10 pages excluding
2 exhibits as the therapist deems appropriate and “necessary and in Esme’s best interest.” (See
3 4/6/2025 order.) This declaration shall be lodged and served on both parties on or before
4 8/12/2026. The parties, through counsel, are ordered to provide the therapist with a copy of this
5 tentative ruling and subsequent court order forthwith. On or before 8/21/2026, each party may file 6 a supplemental declaration, no longer than 5 pages, regarding their respective positions on 7 Father’s parenting time request in light of any information received from the therapist.

8 3) At the 9/3/2026 hearing, the Court will also address whether child support needs to be modified.

9 At least 20 calendar days prior to the 9/3/2026 hearing date, both parties shall file and serve
10 updated Income and Expense Declarations. At least 10 calendar days prior to the next hearing
11 date, both parties shall file and serve Statements of Support Calculation.

12 4) All prior orders not in conflict with these orders shall remain in full force and effect.

13 5) Father’s attorney shall prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.

14 6) Preparation of Order: If you are directed by the court to prepare the order after hearing – within
15 10 calendar days of the hearing you must either: (a) Serve the proposed order to the other
16 party/counsel for approval, and follow the procedures set forth in CA Rules of Court, Rule
17 5.125(c), or (b) If the other party did not appear or the matter was uncontested, submit the 18 proposed order after hearing directly to the court. Failure to submit the order after hearing within 19 10 days may allow the other party to prepare a proposed order and submit it to the court in 20 accordance with CA Rules of Court, Rule 5.125(d).

REQUEST FOR ORDER RE: ISSUE, EVIDENCE, AND MONETARY SANCTIONS AND IMMEDIATE PAYMENT OF PREVIOUSLY ORDERED ATTORNEY FEES SANCTIONS

TENTATIVE RULING

The parties are ordered to appear in-person or via Zoom video at 11AM on 7/28/2026 in Department 404. If a party chooses to appear by Zoom, that party must abide by the Notice and Instructions for Remote Appearance in San Francisco Family Court set forth above.

A. Procedural History

- 1) Petitioner Brian Risley-O'Rourke (Father) and Respondent Kourtney Williams (Mother) have one minor child together, Ari (DOB 2/11/2015, age 11). The parties married on 4/22/2017 and separated on 2/3/2020, for a marriage of 2 years and 9 months. Father is represented by attorneys William and Karen Parks. Mother is represented by attorney James Ward.
- 2) A Judgment of Dissolution was entered on 12/30/2021, which provides in relevant part:
 - a. The parties shall share joint legal and joint physical custody of Ari.
 - b. The parties shall have an equal timeshare of Ari.
 - c. Father shall pay Mother $293 per month in base guideline child support plus Smith / Ostler child support, adjusted to take into account the fact that both parties hold Uber

1 shares. The child support calculation attached to the parties' Judgment is based on
2 Husband's earning $13,650 per month in wages and salary and Mother's earning $8,398
3 per month in wages and salary.

4 d. The Court's jurisdiction to award spousal support to either party was terminated.

5 3) On 8/6/2025, Mother filed a Request for Order seeking to modify the child support order set forth
6 in the Judgment. Mother attached a proposed XSpouse calculation which shows $3,981 per 7 month in guideline child support. Per the Income and Expense Declaration filed that same day,
8 Mother states Father now earns $53,124 per month based on his "6/30/2025 paystub" and Mother 9 states she is currently earning on average $300 per month in dividends and interest plus an 10 additional $800 in average monthly net self-employment income as the owner of Obodo Tax
11 LLC. Mother states she was forced to leave her prior W-2 job due to health issues. Mother states 12 her previous position required that she sometimes work 80+ hour weeks with little sleep.

13 4) The hearing on Mother's 8/6/2025 Request for Order to modify child support was originally set 14 for hearing on 9/5/2025. The hearing was continued to 11/7/2025 because Father's attorney was 15 unavailable on 9/5/2025 and because Father wanted to conduct discovery. The 11/7/2025 hearing
16 was then continued to 5/7/2026 because Father stated Mother had ignored his discovery requests
17 and he had filed a motion to compel which was set for hearing on 1/29/2026. The 5/7/2026
18 hearing on Mother's request to modify child support was then continued to a status conference on 19 6/1/2026 because Father requested to schedule Mother's request to modify child support for a 20 long-cause hearing. At the 6/1/2026 status conference, the Court continued the status conference 21 to 8/24/2026.

22 5) On 1/29/2026, per the Findings and Order After Hearing filed 2/3/2026, the Court granted
23 Father's motion to compel and ordered Mother to provide full and complete code-compliant
24 responses (without objection) to Father's Special Interrogatories, Set One; Request for Production
25 of Documents, Set One; and Form Interrogatories, Set One no later than 2/13/2026. The Court
26 also granted Father's request for the Court to reserve jurisdiction to impose issue or evidence
27 sanctions under Code of Civil Procedure sections 2023.030(b)-(d). The Court further awarded
28 Father monetary sanctions in the amount of $3,612.50 under Code of Civil Procedure sections
29

2030.290(c) and 2031.300(c), but reserved jurisdiction to set a deadline for payment of this amount because the Court found that Mother did not have the current ability to pay that amount.

6) On 5/21/2026, Father filed a Request for Order requesting sole legal and sole physical custody of Ari, a full-scope child custody evaluation, and reduced visitation for Mother. The hearing on Father's 5/21/2026 Request for Order is currently set for a short-cause hearing on 10/8/2026.

7) Now on for hearing is Father's Request for Order filed 3/3/2026 wherein Father requests approximately 60 detailed issue and evidence sanctions (many requests contain multiple subparts) based on purported deficiencies in Mother's responses to his discovery requests. Father also requests $13,300 in monetary sanctions under Code of Civil Procedure sections 2023.020, 2023.050, 2030.030, 2030.290(c), and 2031.300(c). Father further requests that the Court order Mother to immediately pay the $3,612.50 in sanctions ordered at the 1/29/2026 hearing.

8) On 3/3/2026, Father also filed a Separate Statement, a Memorandum of Points and Authorities, and an attorney declaration in support of Father's request for sanctions.

9) On 5/11/2026, Mother filed a Responsive Declaration asking the Court to deny Father's requested relief.

10) On 5/15/2026, attorney Karen Parks filed a declaration increasing Father's request for sanctions to $21,140.

11) On 5/15/2026, Father filed a Reply Declaration as well as Objections to Respondent's Responsive Declaration and Separate Statement. Father states that he discovered Mother has eight financial accounts that were not disclosed in her previously filed Income and Expense Declaration, only one of which is a retirement account. Father notes that Mother previously stated she did not know retirement accounts were required to be disclosed. Father further states that the non-retirement accounts contain $214,730.29 and argues that Mother therefore has the ability to pay both the requested $21,140 in attorney fee sanctions and the previously awarded $3,612.50 in sanctions.

12) On 7/15/2026, Mother filed a second Responsive Declaration reiterating her requests that the Court deny Father's requested relief.

13) On 7/17/2026, Father filed an Update Declaration and attorney Karen Parks filed a request for additional attorney's fees following newly discovered information. Ms. Parks states that she

1 recently discovered that Mother has or had a previously undisclosed daycare business. Ms. Parks
2 now requests $24,780 in attorney fee sanctions.

3 14) On 7/17/2026, Father filed a Request for Long-Cause Hearing. Father writes, “The discovery at 4 issue consisted of 42 Requests for Production of Documents and 46 Special Interrogatories. Most,
5 though not all, of those 88 demands are at issue. The Court must therefore determine, on a
6 request-by-request basis, what was requested, what Respondent represented in her responses,
7 what she produced or withheld, whether responsive information was within her possession,
8 custody, or control, and whether the record supports the requested sanctions. The issues require a
9 request-by-request analysis of Respondent’s responses, production, compliance, and the sanctions
10 sought...Live testimony and cross-examination are necessary for the Court to resolve the 11 resulting factual conflicts and assess Respondent’s explanations and credibility.” Father estimates 12 that a 1.5 day long-cause hearing is necessary for his request for discovery sanctions, 2.5 hours of 13 testimony from Father, and one full Court day of testimony from Mother.

14 15) On 7/21/2026, Mother filed a Supplemental Declaration stating her daycare business never earned
15 any income, “not gross revenue, not net not income, nothing. There was no income to disclose 16 because none was ever earned.”

17 16) The volume of pleadings filed for Father’s 3/3/2026 Request for Order is enormous. The 18 pleadings cited below total 636 pages.

- 19 a. Father’s 3/3/2026 Request for Order is 178 pages long (including exhibits). The exhibits
20 to Father’s Request for Order include a meet and confer letter dated 2/19/2026 and 21 addressed to Mother’s attorney which is 60 pages long and a second meet and confer
22 letter dated 1/2/2026 and addressed to Mother’s attorney which is 53 pages long.
 - 23 b. Father’s 3/3/2026 Separate Statement is 99 pages long (no exhibits).
 - 24 c. Mother’s 5/11/2026 Responsive Declaration is 71 pages long (including exhibits).
 - 25 d. Mother’s 5/11/2026 Response to Separate Statement is 36 pages long (no exhibits).
 - 26 e. Father’s 5/15/2026 Reply Declaration is 33 pages long (including exhibits).
 - 27 f. Father’s 5/15/2026 Objections to Respondent’s Responsive Declaration and Separate 28 Statement is 22 pages long (no exhibits).
- 29

g. Mother second Responsive Declaration filed 7/15/2026 is 98 pages long (including exhibits).

h. Mother's 7/21/2026 Supplemental Declaration is 99 pages long (including exhibits).

B. Findings and Order

1) Father's request for immediate payment of the $3,612.50 in sanctions previously awarded at the prior 1/29/2026 hearing is hereby granted. Mother shall pay this amount to Father no later than 8/15/2026.

2) Regarding the remainder of Father's requests for discovery sanctions, the parties are ordered to appear at 11AM on 7/28/2026.

A. Procedural History

- 1) Anupama Keshavan (Mother) and Frank Stienhans (Father) have one minor child together, Inca (DOB 9/28/2009, age 16). In a Judgment filed 8/24/2024, the parties agreed to share joint legal custody of Inca, with Mother to have primary physical custody and Father to have parenting time every Sunday dinner and phone calls 3 times a week.
- 2) On 11/13/2025, Father filed a request for a change in custody and parenting time stating the parties had significantly deviated from their prior custody agreement, Mother was abusive towards Inca and had alienated him, and Inca was unhappy in Mother’s home. Father stated he was willing to move to Los Angeles so Inca can continue her studies at Cal State Los Angeles, where she is a college student. Mother opposed the request, denied the abuse allegations, and stated she had made efforts to include Father in coparenting. She stated she would agree to longer

1 weekend visits for Father, for Inca to stay with Father during the summer of 2026 while works as
2 an intern at UCSF, and that assuming the summer is successful and Father moves to Los Angeles,
3 for the parties to have a week-on, week-off parenting time schedule. The Court ordered a Tier II
4 interview of Inca and Family Court Services prepared a Tier II report for the hearing.

5 3) At a 5/21/2026 hearing, the Court accepted the parties' agreement that Inca will stay with Father
6 during the summer of 2026. The Court ordered a follow-up Tier II interview of Inca and set the 7 matter for a review hearing on 7/28/2026.

8 4) Both parties filed update declarations, which the Court has reviewed and considered. Mother
9 states, among other things, that she had insufficient time to review the prior Tier II report that was 10 prepared for the 5/21/2026 hearing. She responds to the statements Inca made during the prior 11 Tier II interview. She requests that Inca be ordered to provide both parties with screenshots of her 12 academic records; she states Father has told her he cannot access them without Inca's permission.
13 Mother states she has decided to defer to the Court's determination regarding custody for Inca
14 rather than pursue a custody evaluation. Father states, among other things, that Inca has been in 15 his custody since 5/21/2026 and is doing well. He states he encourages, and does not monitor, 16 communication between Inca and Mother, and that Mother and Inca saw each other in Los 17 Angeles on 7/6/2026. He plans to move to Los Angeles and intends to cooperate with Mother's 18 request to have her gain access to Inca's school records.

19 5) Family Court Services conducted a follow-up Tier II interview of Inca, who was clear in stating 20 that she wishes to continue living with Father until she completes her final year of college. She 21 stated she would be open to having dinner with Mother once a month, but with Father also 22 present, and that she would want any weekly phone or video calls with Mother to last no longer 23 than 15 minutes.

24 B. Findings and Orders

25 1) This Court has jurisdiction to make child custody orders in this case under the Uniform Child
26 Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act. A violation of this order may subject the party in
27 violation to civil or criminal penalties, or both. The country of habitual residence of the minor
28 child is the United States.

- 2) The Court finds it is in Inca's best interest for the parties to continue sharing joint legal custody of Inca and for Inca to continue living with Father in Los Angeles. Father shall continue to encourage Inca to maintain communication with Mother.
- 3) Mother shall have at least monthly in-person lunch or dinner visits with Inca, to be arranged by Mother and Inca. Father, upon Inca's request, and at his discretion, may be present during these visits. In addition, Mother shall be entitled to have at least one weekly phone or video call with Inca, as a check-in (no minimum or maximum time restrictions) to see how Inca is doing.
- 4) The parties shall work together to ensure that both parties have access to Inca's school records. If the parties are unable to access Inca's school records directly due to school policy or for whatever other reason, Father, as the primary custodial parent, shall ensure that Inca shares with both parties, at minimum, the following school information: (1) list of course names and credits for each school term including Spring 2026 (if not provided already); (2) midterm grades; (3) final grades; and (4) unofficial school transcripts at the end of each academic term including Spring 2026.
- 5) If either party has any new requests relating to custody and parenting time, they may file a new request for order.

II. Financial Issues

A. Procedural History

- 1) At the prior 3/26/2026 hearing, the Court modified child support effective 11/13/2025, requiring Father to pay Mother $2,920 per month in base guideline child support and ordered the parties to share equally Inca's CSU tuition and related costs. The XSpouse child support calculation is based on a 15% timeshare for Father. The Court maintained the following orders set forth in the Judgment filed 8/24/2024: paragraph V(24) – Smith / Ostler child support order; V(25) – Medical Insurance and Expenses; V(26) Wage Assignment; and V(27) Tax Dependency Exemption. The Court did not modify the spousal support order within the Judgment which requires Father to pay Mother $5,319 per month in spousal support. The Court further set a review hearing on child support for 5/21/2026.

- 2) On 4/14/2026, Mother filed a Request for Order seeking $56,615 in need-based attorney's fees and costs.
- 3) On 4/14/2026, Mother's attorney filed a declaration stating Mother had incurred $6,615.45 in fees and costs as of 3/31/2026. Mother's attorney stated Mother needed an additional $50,000 in fees and costs to allow Mother to participate in a custody trial.
- 4) At the prior 5/21/2026 hearing, the Court declined to modify child support, but set a future hearing date of 7/28/2026 to review child support and to adjudicate Mother's request for attorney's fees.
- 5) On 7/15/2026, Father filed a Responsive Declaration and Memorandum of Points and Authorities asking that the Court deny Mother's fee request. In addition to other arguments made, Father states that Mother only reports a 1.54% return on her $1.9 million in investments and she could be earning a higher rate of return on her investments.
- 6) The Court notes that in his Amended Income and Expense Declaration filed 5/13/2026, Father states that he earns $3,718 per month in dividends and interest. Father reports owning $2.3 million in investments. This represents a 1.9% rate of return.
- 7) On 7/17/2026, Mother filed a Supplemental Declaration wherein Mother reduces her fee request to $11,386.65. Mother states that she is requesting both need-based fees as well as attorney's fees sanctions under Family Code section 271 for Father's "failure to make any attempt to settle shit matter outside of court and specifically for his inclusion of Inca's declaration and personal records which he had filed in the public record." Mother states that since her initial request for attorney's fees and costs, she has incurred an additional $3,437.50 in fees and costs for her attorney to prepare for and attend the 5/21/2026 declaration and to prepare the instant declaration. Mother states that she anticipates incurring additional fees of approximately two hours for her attorney to prepare for and attend the 7/28/2026 hearing. Mother therefore requests fees and costs in the amount of $11,386.65.
- 8) The Court notes that neither party included requests to modify child support in their most recent pleadings, nor did either party submit a proposed Statement of Support Calculation.

B. Findings and Order

- 1) Mother's request for attorney's fees sanctions under Family Code section 271 is denied.

- 1 2) The Court finds that there is a substantial disparity in access to funds to pay legal fees; that Father
2 has the ability to pay for his own fees as well as Mother's, and that the amount Mother is 3 requesting in attorney's fees and costs ($11,386.65) is just, reasonable, and necessary. The Court
4 hereby awards to Mother $11,386.65 in need-based attorney's fees and costs. Father shall pay this 5 amount to Mother no later than 8/15/2026.
- 6 3) The Court sets a future hearing date of Tuesday, 10/22/2026 at 9:00 AM in Dept. 404 to review
7 child support for the period of Summer 2026 as well as child support for the period commencing
8 Fall 2026. At least 20 calendar days prior to the next hearing date, both parties shall file and serve
9 updated Income and Expense Declarations. At least 10 calendar days prior to the next hearing
10 date, both parties shall file and serve proposed Statements of Support Calculations, which shall 11 include XSpouse calculations for Summer 2026 and the period commencing Fall 2026. Pending 12 the next hearing date, the parties shall meet and confer to attempt to reach an agreement regarding 13 child support calculations for these two time periods.

14
15 III. Other Orders

- 16
17 1) Father's attorney is admonished to prepare and submit the Findings and Orders After Hearing for 18 the 3/26/2026 and 5/21/2026 hearing dates forthwith, as previously ordered by this Court.
- 19 2) Father's attorney shall prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing for the 7/28/2026 hearing 20 date.
- 21 3) Preparation of Order: If you are directed by the court to prepare the order after hearing – within
22 10 calendar days of the hearing you must either: (a) Serve the proposed order to the other
23 party/counsel for approval, and follow the procedures set forth in CA Rules of Court, Rule
24 5.125(c), or (b) If the other party did not appear or the matter was uncontested, submit the
25 proposed order after hearing directly to the court. Failure to submit the order after hearing within 26 10 days may allow the other party to prepare a proposed order and submit it to the court in 27 accordance with CA Rules of Court, Rule 5.125(d).

REQUEST FOR ORDER RE: CHANGE OF PROPERTY CONTROL; MOTION TO COMPEL

TENTATIVE RULING

The parties are ordered to appear in-person or via Zoom video at 9AM on 7/28/2026 in Department 404 so that the Court can make arrangements for Respondent to return the Boosted scooter to Petitioner without violating the active restraining order. If a party chooses to appear by Zoom, that party must abide by the Notice and Instructions for Remote Appearance in San Francisco Family Court set forth above.

A. Procedural History

- 1) The parties in this matter are Corey Royal-Million (Petitioner) and Tony Royal-Million (Respondent). The parties married on 10/22/2017. Petitioner contends the parties separated on 6/26/2023, for a marriage of 5 years and 8 months. Respondent asserts the parties separated on 1/22/2019, for a marriage of 1 year and 3 months. The parties have no minor children in common. Both parties are self-represented.
- 2) On 1/22/2019, a Criminal Protective Order was issued for Respondent's protection against Petitioner. The CPO expired on 1/22/2022.

1 3) On 7/29/2021, in related Case No. FDV-21-815745, the Court issued a 3-year Restraining Order
2 After Hearing for Petitioner's protection against Respondent. The restraining order expired on 3 7/28/2024.

4 4) On 11/21/2025, in related Case No. FDV-17-813401, the Court issued a 5-year Restraining Order
5 After Hearing for Respondent's protection against Petitioner. The restraining order expires on 6 11/21/2030.

7 5) On for hearing is Petitioner's Request for Order filed 5/21/2026. Petitioner checked the box for 8 "Property Control" of "dji Drone" and "boosted Rev scooter." Petitioner's 5/21/2026 Request for 9 Order also includes a motion to compel. Petitioner asks the Court to:

10 a. Order Respondent to serve further verified, code-compliant responses to Petitioner's
11 Request for Production, Set One;

12 b. Order Respondent to produce all responsive documents in his possession, custody or 13 control;

14 c. Order Respondent to supplement incomplete responses and identify unavailable records if 15 claimed unavailable;

16 d. Award monetary sanctions in an amount the Court deems appropriate.

17 6) On 7/14/2026, Petitioner filed a Declaration. Petitioner states that Respondent is wrongfully 18 withholding his Boosted electric scooter. Petitioner states, if Respondent is unable or unwilling to 19 return the scooter because it has been sold, damaged, destroyed, or otherwise disposed of,
20 Petitioner requests that the Court order Respondent to reimburse Petitioner for its full 21 replacement value together with any additional damages the Court finds appropriate. Petitioner
22 states the scooter is not community property and was gifted to him in July 2022 by David 23 Rodriguez. Petitioner attached to his declaration a declaration signed by David Rodriguez (who 24 states he purchased a Boosted scooter in February 2020 but gave it to Petitioner in July 2022 as a
25 gift and did not intend for Respondent to take possession of or claim ownership of the scooter), 26 the order confirmation, and the credit card receipt for the purchase of the scooter.

27 7) On 7/15/2026, Respondent filed a Responsive Declaration asking the Court to:

28 a. Deny Petitioner's motion to compel in its entirety, as all proper discovery issues are either 29 legally meritless, mooted by compliance, or seek irrelevant separate property data.

- b. Issue a protective order restricting Petitioner from filing further duplicative, abusive, or non-meritorious discovery motions regarding closed, pre-separation accounts or adjudicated separate property assets.
 - c. Establish the January 22, 2019 Date of Separation
 - d. Find Spousal Support Legally Barred Under Family Code § 4325
- 8) On 7/23/2026, Petitioner filed a Responsive Declaration asking the Court to:
- a. Deny Respondent's requested relief.
 - b. Grant the relief requested in Petitioner's Request for Order.
 - c. Order Respondent to produce all outstanding financial records.
 - d. Order Respondent to pay the reasonable costs of subpoenas made necessary by his failure to comply with discovery obligations.
 - e. Order the immediate return of Petitioner's separate property, including Petitioner's Boosted scooter.
 - f. Reserve jurisdiction regarding additional sanctions, attorney's fees, and any further relief the Court deems just and proper.
- 9) On 7/24/2026, Respondent filed a Declaration. Respondent states that the order confirmation and the credit card receipt for the purchase of the scooter attached to Petitioner's 7/14/2026 declaration are fabricated. Respondent asks that the Court strike Petitioner's declaration filed 7/14/2026, rule that Petitioner is an unreliable witness, hold Petitioner in contempt of Court, and refer the matter for criminal perjury prosecution. Respondent does not refute Petitioner's statements that an individual named David Rodriguez gifted the scooter to Petitioner in July 2022.

B. Findings and Order

- 1) The hearing on Petitioner's motion to compel, and the related requests, set forth in his Request for Order filed 5/21/2026 is hereby continued to 8/7/2026 at 1:30 PM in Dept. 405A to join the hearings already set on that date on other discovery related requests.
- 2) Petitioner's request for control of "dji Drone" is denied without prejudice as neither Petitioner's Request for Order nor his subsequently filed declarations provided facts or argument in support of this request.

- 1 3) Family Code section 770(a)(2) provides that separate property of a married person includes “all
2 property acquired by the person after marriage by gift, bequest, devise, or descent.” Although 3 Respondent refutes the veracity of the order confirmation and purchase receipt attached to 4 Petitioner’s 7/14/2026 declaration, Respondent does not dispute Petitioner's assertion that David
5 Rodriguez gifted the scooter to Petitioner in July 2022. The Court finds that the Boosted scooter
6 is Petitioner’s separate property under Family Code section 770(a)(2). Because the Court's 7 finding is based on Petitioner’s unrefuted statement that the scooter was gifted to Petitioner, the 8 Court need not determine whether the order confirmation and purchase receipt attached to 9 Petitioner's declaration are authentic. Accordingly, the Court declines to strike Petitioner's
10 7/14/2026 declaration or make a finding regarding Respondent's allegations of fabrication.
11 Respondent is ordered to return the Boosted scooter to Petitioner no later than 7/31/2026.
- 12 4) The parties are ordered to appear at 9AM on 7/28/2026 so that the Court can make 13 arrangements for Respondent to return the Boosted scooter to Petitioner without violating 14 the active restraining order.

REQUEST FOR ORDER: SPOUSAL OR PARTNER SUPPORT, ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) Petitioner Lisa Hartmayer (Wife) and Respondent Lucas French (Husband) married on 10/21/2017. Petitioner contends the parties separated on 10/14/2024, for a marriage of 6 years and 11 months. Respondent contends the parties separated on 1/3/2025, for a marriage of 7 years and 2 months. The parties do not have minor children. Both parties are currently self-represented, but are using consulting attorneys.
- 2) On for hearing is Husband's Request for Order filed 5/20/2026 seeking temporary guideline spousal support and $20,000 in need-based attorney's fees.
- 3) On 7/20/2026, Wife filed a Responsive Declaration asking the Court to find that both parties are self-supporting and order that both parties pay for their own attorney's fees and costs. Wife states that she works between 36 and 40 hours per week, and she often works night shifts and weekends. Wife states that Husband could be earning more as a Physician's Assistant, but he prefers to work lower stress and lower paid jobs with flexible hours. Wife states she believes Husband is working less than 40 hours per week. Wife also states that just 5 days prior to her

1 filing her Responsive Declaration, the house in Connecticut where her father (age 80), mother
2 (age 71), and aunt (age 76) reside burned down. Wife states she contacted her employer and has 3 been offered an unpaid leave of absence for up to six months to care for her elderly family. Wife
4 states she is using vacation time right now, but tentatively estimates that she will be on a leave of 5 absence for three months commencing 8/1/2026. Wife states it will be a financial hardship to be 6 without income for three months and asks that the Court award her spousal support for those three 7 months and then determine Husband's need for support when she returns from leave.

- 8 4) On 7/23/2026, Husband filed a Reply Declaration reiterating all of his original requests. Husband 9 states he currently works 40 hours per week. Husband argues, "The fact that some PAs may earn 10 higher salaries does not establish that I can immediately obtain comparable employment or that 11 my current income is intentionally reduced." Husband states he has lived in his friend's spare
12 room since separation. Husband states, "This matter involves disputed issues regarding spousal 13 support, attorney's fees, property characterization and division, reimbursement claims and a 14 potential Moore/Marsden analysis on both of our real property homes, all of which require 15 competent legal representation. I am willing to engage in good-faith mediation to resolve the 16 remaining financial issues in our case. However, this does not eliminate my need for spousal
17 support and in fact increases my need for support and an award of attorney's fees as I will require
18 legal representation to assist me in mediation." Regarding Wife's family emergency, Husband 19 states, "Based on Petitioner's paystubs, she has not missed work or suffered any reduction in 20 income as a result of this family emergency. Although Petitioner indicated she may request
21 unpaid leave of absence in the future, that leave is a choice, has not occurred, and is not presently
22 affecting her income or earning capacity. A potential future decision to take unpaid leave does not 23 eliminate Petitioner's current ability to pay temporary spousal support and contribute to my 24 attorney's fees. If Petitioner later elects to voluntarily reduce her employment, that decision
25 should not automatically shift the financial burden to me to pay her spousal support. Moreover,
26 Petitioner remains a highly compensated Nurse Practitioner within the University of California
27 system with substantial earning capacity that should not be overlooked. As such, I respectfully
28 request the Court deny Petitioner's request for spousal support as her request is unsupported."

1 B. Findings and Order

2 1) Base Temporary Spousal Support

- 3 a. Effective 5/20/2026 (the date Husband filed his Request for Order), in accordance with 4 the XSpouse calculation attached hereto and incorporated herein, Wife shall pay to 5 Husband temporary base guideline spousal support of $895 per month. One-half shall be 6 due and payable by the 1st and one-half shall be due and payable by the 15th of each 7 month.
8 b. Base support for July 2026 shall be paid in full no later than 7/31/2026.
9 c. Based on the foregoing, Wife owes to Husband temporary base spousal support arrears in 10 the amount of $318 for the period 5/20/2026 – 5/31/2026 and $895 for June 2026, for 11 total base support arrears due and owing of $1,213 for the period 5/20/2026 – 6/30/2026.
12 These arrears shall be paid in full no later than 8/15/2026.

13 2) Smith / Ostler Temporary Spousal Support

- 14 a. Effective 5/20/2026, in addition to temporary base guideline spousal support, each party 15 shall pay to the other the applicable percentage of any additional gross income (e.g., 16 overtime pay, bonuses, and additional compensation) received in excess of their base
17 salary, pursuant to the Bonus Tables attached the second XSpouse calculation.
18 b. The Court notes that the Guerneville rental property appears to be generating $0 in net
19 rental income annually, even excluding depreciation. The Court further lacks sufficient 20 information to determine whether the property is Husband's separate property or 21 community property. Therefore, the Court reserves jurisdiction to determine whether any 22 future net rental income from the Guerneville property should be included in the parties'
23 Smith/Ostler calculation and, if so, in what amount.
24 c. The parties shall perform a quarterly true-up to determine Smith / Ostler temporary 25 spousal support due and owing between the parties. Commencing 10/15/2026, and 26 thereafter on January 15th, April 15th, July 15th, October 15th of each year, the parties
27 shall exchange documents showing all income received in the immediately preceding
28 three months and the parties shall meet and confer to determine what amount in Smith /
29 Ostler temporary spousal support, if any, is due and owing between the parties. The

1 parties shall pay any Smith / Ostler temporary spousal support due and owing between 2 the parties no later than January 31st, April 30th, July 31st, and October 31st.

- 3 d. The October 15th true-up shall be for all income earned during the period 5/20/2026 –
4 9/30/2026.

5 3) Wife's Request Regarding Anticipated Leave of Absence

- 6 a. Wife's request for spousal support during any period in which she elects to take a leave 7 of absence from work to care for her family is denied.
- 8 b. The Court's jurisdiction is reserved to recalculate support owed by Wife, if any, during 9 any periods in which she takes leave from work. If the Court were to recalculate support
10 owed by Wife during any leave periods, the Court would consider whether Wife had any 11 accrued vacation leave or other paid leave benefits available to her, and would consider 12 imputing to Wife as income any vacation leave or other paid leave benefits available to 13 her that she did not elect to use.

14 4) Attorney's Fees and Costs

- 15 a. The Court finds there is a disparity in access to funds to pay legal fees and that Wife has 16 the ability to make a contribution to Husband's attorney's fees while also paying for her 17 own attorney's fees, given her additional cash savings, the fact that her net spendable
18 income will be slightly higher than Husband's after base support is paid, and that Wife
19 earns significant income in addition to her base income, of which Wife will only pay a 20 percentage to Husband in Smith / Ostler temporary spousal support. The Court does not 21 find that Wife has the ability to pay the full $20,000 Husband is requesting while also 22 paying for her own fees. The Court will instead award to Husband $10,000, which the 23 Court finds to be a just, reasonable, and necessary amount. Wife shall pay this amount to 24 Husband no later than 8/15/2026.

25 5) The Court will prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.

REQUEST FOR ORDER: ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) On 8/26/2025, Petitioner Amelia Szasz (Mother) filed a Request for Domestic Violence Restraining Order (DVRO) against Respondent David Semel (Father). The parties are married and have two children together, Charles (who turned 18 on 4/19/2026) and Isaiah (who is an adult). Mother is represented by attorney Robert Rathmell. Father is self-represented.
- 2) On 11/5/2025, following a short-cause hearing, Judge Costin issued a 1-year DVRO against Father for Mother's and Charles' protection ("until he turns 18"). On 5/5/2026, an Amended DVRO was entered removing Charles as a protected party (because he turned 18 years old). The DVRO for Mother's protection is set to expire on 11/5/2026.
- 3) On 12/31/2025, Mother filed a Request for Order seeking $58,752 in fees, $1,929 in costs, and a projected $10,000 "in connection with this Request for Order" under Family Code section 6344.
- 4) On 12/31/2025, Mother's attorney filed a declaration stating that Mother has incurred $58,752 in attorney's fees and $1,929 in costs "related to pursuing and enforcing the DVRO" between 8/29/2025 (when Mother's attorney was retained) and 12/31/2025 (the date of Mother's

1 attorney's declaration). Mother's attorney estimates that Mother will incur an additional $10,000
2 in attorney's fees and costs in connection with responding to any opposition to this request,
3 prepare any reply, meet and confer with Father, and appear at the hearing on attorney's fees if 4 required. Mother therefore seeks a total fee award of $70,681. Mother states that Father has the 5 ability to pay Mother's attorney's fees and costs because Father is a "partner at a law firm" and 6 "earns significantly more income than Mother."

7 5) As set forth in the Findings and Order After Hearing filed 3/30/2026, the prior 3/19/2026 hearing
8 was continued to 5/21/2026 because Mother's 12/31/2025 Request for Order had been 9 electronically served on Father and the Court did not see in the record that Father had agreed to 10 accept electronic service in this case.

11 6) On 4/21/2026, Mother's attorney filed a Proof of Electronic Service stating that Mother's 12 12/31/2025 Request for Order, Mother's attorney's declaration, blank Responsive Declaration, 13 and "proposed Findings and Order After Hearing for 3/19/2026" were emailed to Father on 14 3/26/2026. Attached to the Proof of Electronic Service is a declaration by Mother's attorney
15 stating that he does not have a mailing address for Father and his office attempted to personally
16 serve Father at his work address on 3/26/2026. Mother's attorney attached an email from Father
17 dated 3/26/2026 which states: "I've been told you sent a process server to my office, in violation
18 my agreement to accept e-service and local rules governing service. Kindly refrain from further 19 disturbing my office and email me anything you intend to serve, then I won't report you to the 20 State Bar." Mother's attorney attached an email responding to Father's email wherein Mother's 21 attorney states: "Here's the email we sent you on 1/8/26 with the attached Request for Order for 22 Fees pursuant to Family Code section 6344. The hearing was on March 19, 2026, at 9:00 a.m. in 23 Dept. 404 as indicated on the endorsed filed FL-300. The hearing took place and the court
24 adopted its tentative ruling. I've attached the FOAH prepared by our office although we have not 25 received the conformed copy yet from the Court." Mother's attorney attached a second email to 26 Father wherein Mother's attorney sends Father the Tentative Ruling Instructions.

27 7) The Court notes that on 4/20/2026 in related Case No. FDV-26-819100, Charles filed his own
28 Request for DVRO against Father. On 6/24/2026, Charles was granted a 3-year DVRO against 29 Father.

1 8) The Court also notes that on 4/29/2026, in related Case No. FCS-25-357634, Judge Pro Tem
2 Judith Harding ordered Father to pay Mother $2,100 per month in guideline child support and this
3 order is based on Father earning $16,083 per month and Mother earning $6,950 per month.

4 9) Father has filed no declarations responding to Mother's attorney's fee request.

5 B. Findings and Order

6 1) The Court finds good cause to grant Mother's unopposed request for prevailing party attorney's 7 fees under Family Code section 6344.

8 2) The Court hereby awards to Mother $48,000, which the Court finds to be a just, reasonable, and 9 necessary amount.

10 3) Effective 8/15/2026, Father shall pay to Mother's attorney $2,000 per month by the 15th of each 11 month for 24 months.

12 4) Father's attorney shall prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.

13 5) Preparation of Order: If you are directed by the court to prepare the order after hearing – within
14 10 calendar days of the hearing you must either: (a) Serve the proposed order to the other
15 party/counsel for approval, and follow the procedures set forth in CA Rules of Court, Rule
16 5.125(c), or (b) If the other party did not appear or the matter was uncontested, submit the 17 proposed order after hearing directly to the court. Failure to submit the order after hearing within 18 10 days may allow the other party to prepare a proposed order and submit it to the court in 19 accordance with CA Rules of Court, Rule 5.125(d).
