Motion: Defendant Majco LLC’s (“Defendant”) Motion to Stay the Action (“Motion”)

Tentative Ruling:

Defendant seeks to stay this action, which is related to four other pending lawsuits: Justin Poor v. MAJCO LLC, Case No. 2024CUOE032522, Ventura County Superior Court; Matthew Heintze v. MAJCO LLC, et al., Case No. 2024CUOE021584, Ventura County Superior Court; Ernesto Sanchez, et al. v. MAJCO LLC, Case No. 2025CUOE046568, Ventura County Superior Court; Eduardo Sanchez v. MAJCO, LLC, Case No. BCV-25-102146, Kern County Superior Court. Defendant reached a global settlement on May 5, 2026 that necessarily encompasses the four-related cases that asserts class and representative PAGA claims, and the singular PAGA claim involved in this action. The global settlement will be the subject of a motion for preliminary approval in September 2026. Defendant seeks to stay this matter under Code of Civil Procedure section 597 and pursuant to the Court’s inherent authority citing People v. Engram (2010) 50 Cal.4th 1131, 1146 [describing court’s inherent authority and responsibility to fairly and efficiently administer judicial proceedings].)

Plaintiff filed a non-opposition to the Motion.

2026CUOE061822: LUIS ALMAZAN vs MAJCO LLC, A CALIFORNIA LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY

Having reviewed the papers, the Court finds that Code of Civil Procedure section 597 is not applicable given the different representative plaintiffs, and notwithstanding the fact that the State in a PAGA case is the real party in interest. However, the Court exercises its discretion and inherent authority under Code of Civil Procedure section 128 to stay this case pending approval of settlement in the related matters.

The Motion is GRANTED.

The Court sets a status conference re: status of class and PAGA settlement in related actions on July 28, 2026 at 8:30 a.m. The parties are ordered to file a joint statement 10 days in advance of the status conference.
