

other counsel and does not consent to withdrawal.

Analysis

Cal. Rules of Court Rule No. 3.1362 and Cal. Code of Civ. Proc. §§284(1) and (2) sets forth the standard and procedure to be relieved as counsel of record. The Code permits an attorney to be changed at any time before or after judgment or final determination “upon the consent of both client and attorney,” or “upon order of the court, upon the application of either client or attorney, after notice from one to the other.” Withdrawing Counsel has complied with the provisions of this rule and statute providing notice to Plaintiff and supporting this motion with a declaration articulating the reasons for withdrawal.

The Court finds that there is good cause to grant this Motion to relieve Withdrawing Counsel. A trial date is not set. The Court acknowledges that the prejudice to Plaintiff is minimal, as there is ample time for Plaintiff to retain trial counsel, to retain “contract counsel” or to represent herself.

Ruling

After reviewing the papers and arguments submitted by counsel and after considering and weighing the prejudice to both sides, and reviewing the relevant statutory and decisional authority, the Court finds that there is good cause to grant the Motion of Withdrawing Counsel to be Relieved as Counsel of Record. The Court makes the following orders:

1. This motion is granted.
2. The Court will execute the Proposed Order Granting Attorney’s Motion to be Relieved as Counsel (Judicial Council Form MC-053) as submitted on February 11, 2026. The withdrawal is effective immediately.
3. Withdrawing Counsel is ordered to serve a copy of the Order (MC-053) to Plaintiff by mail at her last known address, along with a change of address form, Judicial Council Form MC-040, instructing the client to fill-out and file the change of address form with the Court.
4. The Court schedules a Case Management Conference for December 15, 2026, 2026 at 8:30 a.m. Withdrawing Counsel is ordered to provide notice to Plaintiff of this CMC, and to inform Plaintiff that she is ordered to appear by zoom or in person.
5. Withdrawing counsel shall file a proof of service form indicating that the client was served with the Court’s Order (MC-053) and the Change of Address form (MC-040).
