Motion for Summary Judgment

Upon consideration of all the evidence set forth in the papers, including some of Defendant's responses to Plaintiff's requests for admission and the declaration of plaintiff's Loan Workout Specialist Jason Gil authenticating business records supporting Plaintiff's undisputed material facts, the Court finds that there is no triable issue of material fact and Plaintiff is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Plaintiff has proven each element of its causes of action for breach of written contract and breach of an implied in fact contract, including the principal amount of the debt. The burden therefore shifts to Defendant to show the existence of one or more triable issues of material fact. (Code Civ. Proc., § 437c, subd. (p)(1).) By not opposing the motion, Defendant has failed to meet her burden.
