No. 2 – Auto Auction Group, Inc. v. Auto

Finance Solutions, LLC

Cross-Complainant Auto

Finance Solutions, LLC's Request for Default Judgment on the Cross-Complaint

Cross-Complainant Auto

Finance Solutions, LLC requests court judgment by default against Cross-Defendants Auto Auction Group, Inc. and Onnik Mehrabian, as individual and trustee for the Mehrabian Family Trust. The Court still cannot grant the default judgment.

An application for default judgment requires “[a] dismissal of all parties against whom judgment is not sought or an application for separate judgment against specified parties under Code of Civil Procedure section 579, supported by a showing of grounds for each judgment.” (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.1800(a)(7).) “In an action against several defendants, the Court may, in its discretion, render judgment against one or more of them, leaving the action to proceed against the others, whenever a several judgment is proper.” (CCP § 579.)

Here, Cross-Complainant

asks for a separate judgment against Auto Auction Group, Inc. and Onnik Mehrabian while Cross-Defendants Papa & Sons, LLC and First Business International, the alleged alter egos of Onnik Mehrabian, remain in the case as defaulted Cross-Defendants. However, Cross-Complainant does not adequately show how several judgment is proper under the circumstances. Cross-Complainant brings only one cause of action against all Cross-Defendants for breach of contract. Papa

& Sons, LLC and First Business International are not signatories to the contract; any liability imposed on them would be derivative of Auto Auction Group, Inc. and Onnik Mehrabian's liability. Therefore, Cross-Complainant's application for several judgment is not properly "supported by a showing of grounds for each judgment." (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.1800(a)(7).)

Disposition

Cross-Complainant Auto

Finance Solutions, LLC 's request for default judgment is denied without prejudice.
