#	Case Name Case Number	Tentative
1.	DeJesse vs. MRV Marketing, LLC 2024-01426311	CONTINUED TO JANUARY 25, 2027 , as stated in the August 17, 2026 Minute Order.
2.	In Re: Verdell 2026-01577324	Before the court is the unopposed motion of petitioner DRB Capital, LLC (Petitioner) seeking an order approving the transfer of structured settlement payment rights by and between payee and real party in interest Jahara Verdell (Payee) and Petitioner pursuant to California Insurance Code section 10134 et seq. Specifically, the parties seek court approval of the proposal for Payee to transfer the right to receive a single lump sum payment of $305,250 on August 24, 2027, in exchange for a present lump sum payment of $274,010.71. The future payment of $305,250.00 has a discounted present value of $287,113.05, which means Payee will receive 95.44 percent of that value and this proposed transaction has an equivalent interest rate of 8.98 percent. The Court, having reviewed and considered the petition, together with all other such relevant matters, finds there is good cause to approve the transfer of structured settlement payment rights by and between Payee and Petitioner. The court makes the following findings as required by Insurance

		Code sections 10137 and 10139.5(a): (1) the transfer is fair and reasonable and in the best interest of Payee, taking into account the welfare and support of his dependents; (2) Payee has been advised in writing by Petitioner to seek independent professional advice regarding the transfer and has either received that advice or knowingly waived, in writing, the opportunity to receive the advice; (3) Petitioner has complied with the notification requirements pursuant to Insurance Code section 10139.5(f)(2), Petitioner has provided Payee with a disclosure form that complies with Insurance Code section 10136, and the transfer agreement complies with Insurance Code sections 10136 and 10138; (4) the transfer does not contravene any applicable statute or the order of any court or other government authority and otherwise complies with the requirements of Insurance Code section 10134, et seq.; (5) Payee understands the terms of the transfer agreement, including the terms set forth in the disclosure statement required by Insurance Code section 10136; and (6) Payee understands and does not wish to exercise his right to cancel the transfer agreement. Based on the foregoing, the petition is GRANTED. Petitioner's counsel is ordered to submit a proposed order approving the transfer consistent with the requirements of Insurance Code section 10134 et seq. Petitioner's counsel is ordered to give notice of this ruling.
3.	Spruce Grove, Inc. vs. The Southern California Injury Law Group 2026-01568223	Before the court is a petition to confirm contractual arbitration award filed by petitioner Spruce Grove, Inc. (Petitioner) against respondents The Southern California Injury Law Group, Christopher K. Monelt, Mia Mogavero, and Alazar Berhe (collectively, Respondents). For the reasons set forth below, the petition is GRANTED IN PART and DENIED IN PART. As an initial matter, the court declines to consider Respondents' very untimely opposition. A response to a petition to confirm an arbitration award shall be served and filed within 10 days after service of the petition. (Code Civ. Proc., § 1290.6.) Here, Respondents were served with the petition on June 5, June 12, and June 18, 2026. (ROA 10, 12, 14, 16.) A response to the petition therefore was due no later than June 28, 2026. Respondents' opposition filed on August 12, 2026, thus was untimely. No explanation is provided for the untimely filing. Additionally, no proof of service was filed showing Petitioner was served with a copy of the opposition. The court therefore declines to consider the opposition papers. (Cal. Rules Ct., rule 3.1300(d).)
